under the Act of July 16, 1894."

VOL. XVII

OCTOBER, 1911

NO. 1

An Explanation

Readers of the QUARTERLY may have missed our usual July number. This was due to the fact that, owing to a ruling of the Post Office Department, the school catalog, which is now regularly issued as one of the numbers of the QUARTERLY, may no longer be mailed as an extra number as heretofore, but must take its place as one of the four regular issues. Our readers may hereafter expect, therefore, three news numbers and one catalog number of the paper during each school year.

The New Four Year Course

The new four year Normal Course provided by the new School Code is successfully under way at Bloomsburg. Three sections of First Year students, two of the Second Year, and one of the Third Year are finding their time fully occupied by the studies of the new course this year. Some difficulty was found by Mr. W. B. Sutliff in obtaining a satisfactory system of nomenclature to properly describe the various sections and years of these students in arranging the school program, but a cabalistic combination of letters and numerals was decided upon and is gradually becoming familiar to both teachers and students.

The new course promises, on better acquaintance with its details, to prove most satisfactory.

A New Departure

The Faculty, at a recent meeting, determined on a course of action which has aroused much outside attention and favorable comment.

The title of Professor, as applied to the men of the Faculty, has for a long time been considered as improperly used in a school not of college rank and for that reason it has been decided that this term shall no longer be used at Bloomsburg with the sanction of the Faculty.

In spite of the objection of local members of the Alumni who have expressed their disapproval of the change quite warmly it will be plain "Mister" on Normal Hill hereafter.

Alumni.

The QUARTERLY desires to hear from all Alumni of the institution. Please consider this a personal invitation to let us know all about yourself and all you can tell us concerning your classmates. Address all communications for this department to G. E. Wilbur, Lock Box No 203.

Miss Mary E. Bell, who was a member of the Faculty and office force of the Bloomsburg State Normal School for a period of twenty-two years, died of paralysis at the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles H. Albert in Bloomsburg, Saturday evening, June 10, 1911.

The Faculty of the school at a meeting held June 17th, gave the following expression of their appreciation of her services and worth and directed that the same be recorded in full in the minutes.

“To every man upon this earth Death cometh soon or late.”

says MacCaulay. But a recognition of the truth of these words does not make us feel any the less keenly the shock that comes when one is taken from our immediate circle.

By the death of Miss Mary E. Bell we, the members of the Faculty of the Bloomsburg State Normal School have lost a most faithful and trusted friend and associate. Her life was a blessing to those who knew her, and an influence for good to all who came into contact with her. She was one of those of whom it may truthfully be said :

“The world is better because of her having lived in it.”

But even as we deplore our loss, we cherish her memory ; and we are comforted as with our thoughts of her we recall the assuring words: “In the way of righteousness is life ; and in the pathway thereof there is no death.”

The following clipping from a “down east” paper will interest many former students :

Wellesley, Mass., April 23rd.—Miss Clara Smith, instructor of mathematics at Wellesley College, has been elected a fellow of the American Association for the advancement of Science, partly because of her genius in solving a problem in mathematical science, which for nearly a century has puzzled and perplexed sage college professors and other learned savants.

Miss Smith after several years' work has discovered that S. Abel's theorems could be used to do Bissell's problems in a quicker and simpler manner than hitherto known.

By this discovery she has given to physicists and mathematicians a labor saving method that only scientists can fully appreciate.

Mr. A. Bruce Black, the very efficient and successful teacher of penmanship in the Normal School, left immediately after Commencement last June for Europe where he spent the summer vacation. He devoted very much of his time to the British Museum and Library where he carefully examined the many ancient books therein contained, more especially those pertaining to the works of Shakespeare. In the near future Mr. Black will publish a book.

'74, Mears, Dr. Geo. V. of Fon du Lac, Wisconsin, made a flying visit, early in September, to this his native county. He spent a few hours in Bloomsburg and then hastened on to visit his brother, Dr. D. W. Mears '80, of Scranton. The doctor is a loyal son of "Old Normal," and his wife, formerly Miss Lucy E. Perkins '74, is equally as loyal a daughter.

'78, Evans, L. Wallace, for many years has been a resident of Galveston, Texas, where he has greatly prospered and ranks as one of its most prominent and influential citizens. He is a merchant and has built up a very large business. He has devoted much time to the civic interests of his adopted city, and has been prominently identified with the religious and social activities of the Presbyterian Church south. He is worthy of his success.

'80, Smith, Rev. N. H. has been pastor of the Diamond street M. E. Church, Hazleton, Pa., for several years and has been eminently successful in the administration of the affairs thereof, so much so that a new church edifice has become a necessity. On Saturday, Aug. 19,

Mr. Smith celebrated his birthday by breaking ground for the foundations of a new and larger church. A song and prayer service was conducted in the presence of a big throng of people.

'80, Blum, Lotta, is now living in San Francisco, Calif. Her address is 476 8th Avenue. In a recent letter to Mrs. Celeste Kitchen Prutzman, she says: "Fear of a nervous breakdown was the cause of my resigning from the Seattle schools four years ago and I am now living with relatives in this city. I am very fond of this western country and its climate and have no desire to ever again reside permanently in the east, so you see my chance for a sight of old scenes and familiar faces is very slight. Will you therefore, when an opportunity is afforded you, extend the warmest greetings of this far away member of the class to all, instructors and classmates, together with my earnest wishes for their happiness and welfare?"

'80, Kolb (Hart) Ida P. now resides at 136 Booraem Ave., Jersey City Heights, N. J.

'85, Birch, Rev. Bruce, a professor in Wittenburg College, Ohio, visited friends and the Normal School in the early part of the year. From here he went to Gettysburg where he attended an important meeting of the Lutheran Church to which he was a delegate.

'85, Laudig, O. O., was recently married to a sister of Mrs. Florence

G. Hess (Cool) '88. They sailed from New York, Oct. 3, for India. Mr. Laudig goes to India under a three year's contract to build and operate a blast furnace.

'85, McNiff, M. Katharine. In the January, 1911 number of the High School Argus, an interesting journal published by the students of the Harrisburg High School appears a finely written and well prepared article on Naples, Capri and Pompeii, from the pen of Miss McNiff. It is an instructive as well as an interesting article and is given to us first hand, as she is relating what she herself saw and heard when visiting that country. The production is just what those who know Miss McNiff would expect from her. Miss McNiff is never satisfied with present attainments, she is ever continuing advanced work. At the September convocation of the University of Chicago she received the degree of Bachelor of Philosophy. The educational and literary world will hear still further from her.

'86, Glover, David L. The following appeared among the Mifflinburg items in the Williamsport Sun of April 13: "David L. Glover, Esq., of this place, former district attorney of Union county, and Miss S. Elizabeth Kurtz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther D. Kurtz, were united in marriage at the home of her parents on Walnut street on Wednesday at 10 o'clock a. m. Luther Daniel Kurtz, a nephew of the couple, and Louise K. Glover, daughter of the groom, served as flower boy and girl. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, the party marched to the north end of the parlor before a bank of ferns and Easter flowers, where the bride's pastor, Rev. William M. Rearick, of the Lutheran church, assisted by the groom's pastor, Rev. Dr. M. H. Calkins, of the Presbyterian church, united them in marriage. On their return from a wedding trip they will occupy a newly-furnished home on Market street.

'86, Keiper, J. Claude, has for several years been connected with one of the departments at Washington, D. C. He has taken an active interest in Masonic circles and is now the Most Worshipful Grand Master of the District of Columbia. He made an address at the recent celebration in Philadelphia, of the 125th anniversary of the Independence of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania. We notice in this connection that Dr. Gilbert B. Pfouts, an eminent physician and surgeon of Salt Lake City, who pursued a college preparatory course here in 1880-81 is the Grand Master of Utah. He also made an address on that occasion.

'86, Maurer, James, a very successful dentist in Philadelphia, is located at No. 2827 Diamond street.

'86, Snyder, Annie. We take the following from a local paper, July 5.

In a quiet home wedding Wednesday morning, Miss Annie Snyder, daughter of John Snyder, of East St., became the bride of J. Elmer Mausteller, of North Dakota, and immediately after the ceremony they left for Niagara Falls, where they will spend a week and then go to North Dakota, where they will reside for several months.

The wedding of Miss Snyder will come as a surprise to her many friends. The beautiful ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. E. Byers, pastor of the Lutheran church, of which the bride is a member. The couple were unattended and the wedding was witnessed by only the immediate friends of the two parties.

For the past several years Miss Snyder has been one of the best and most popular school teachers in the Fifth Street public school. The bridegroom was a former resident of Bloomsburg, but has lived in the West nearly all his life.

'87, Yetter, Orval H., Director of Music in the public schools of Bloomsburg, was instructor in music at the Summer School of State College.

'91, Longshore, Katharine. At the recent meeting of the State Teachers' League in Harrisburg, Sept. 22-23, Miss Longshore was unanimously reelected President of the League. There are now 7000 members of the League and they propose that their influence shall be felt in certain measures for the benefit of the teachers of the State, that will be presented to the next Legislature. Miss Katharine is a worker.

'91, Bynon, Dr. Margaret H. sailed from Hong Kong, China, September 5, with Dr. Bryce and family. They expect to reach Jerusalem Oct. 15, after which they will tour Europe, and hope to return to America by Christmas.

'93, Kurtz, Ella B., Registered Nurse, is Superintendent of Nurses, Manhattan State Hospital, Wards Island, N. Y. She is also Editor-in-chief of The Seney Journal, a publication of the Nurses' Alumnae Association of the Methodist Episcopal Hospital Training School for Nurses. THE QUARTERLY acknowledges, with thanks, the receipt of a copy of this interesting Journal—interesting even to laymen.

'94, Evans, William W. At the meeting of the School Directors of Columbia County last May, Mr. Evans was re-elected, by acclamation, County Superintendent of public schools and given an increase in salary amounting to $1000. This is tangible evidence of the county's appreciation of the work he has done during the nine years he has been in that office.

'96, Wilson, Jessie. The Harrisburg Telegraph, Aug. 3, has this: "Mrs. David Wilson of 601 Briggs street, has sent out cards announcing the marriage of her niece, Miss Jessie Campbell Wilson to George Black Stewart, Jr., Tuesday, August 1, at Aleik, Syria.

Both young people were residents of Harrisburg during their childhood, but never met until two years ago when Miss Wilson went to Beirut, Syria, as instructor to the American children of the faculty at the Protestant College, Beirut, of which Mr. Stewart is Treasurer.

The romance began, of course, with Harrisburg reminiscences, and as mutual friends were found the courtship progressed, culminating in a wedding on Tuesday at Aleik, Syria, a summer resort in the mountains.

The bride is a graduate of the Central High School, class of 1895, and an unusually beautiful as well as clever young woman. Following a course at Bloomsburg Normal School, she was a member of the Central High School faculty, later taking her bachelor of arts degree at Cornell University.

She taught at the Yerkes Collegiate Institute, Grand Haven, Mich. and then studied at Columbia University, N. Y., receiving a master of arts degree, following which she sailed for Syria.

Mr. Stewart is the second son of the Rev. George B. Stewart, D. D., president of Auburn Theological Seminary, and spent his younger years in Harrisburg while his father was pastor of the Market Square Presbyterian Church. Immediately after his graduation from Princeton, Mr. Stewart was appointed teacher in the Protestant College at Beirut and was made treasurer of the institution last year. They will reside at Beirut."

'96, Snyder, D. J., has taken the principalship of the schools at Pinzua, Warren county.

'97, Moran, John, who formerly resided at Centralia has moved to Mt. Carmel and opened an office for the practice of law. He was recently engaged on a case in the Courts of Columbia County.

'97, Gelatt, Winifred (State Certificate) teacher of English in the public schools of Binghamton for several years, died August 3, 1911, at a private hospital in that city.

'98, Pursel, Josephine. The wedding of Miss Josephine Pursel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathon Pursel, of Fernville, and Marvin E. Conner, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Conner, of Benton, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, only the immediate families of the couple being in attendance.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. S. C. Dickson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, of which the bride is a member, the beautiful ring ceremony being used.

After a short trip to Niagara Falls, and up the St. Lawrence River, the newly wedded couple will take up their residence in Benton.— Daily Sentinel, Aug. 30.

'99, Ziegler, I. A. who has been in very poor health for three or four years is now somewhat improved. Owing to dizziness and nervousness he is not able to walk very well. He is doing much reading, studying and writing, and at present is engaged on an article, consisting of five parts, entitled The Inside of the Animal Mind. Ira has a host of friends who earnestly wish for him a speedy and complete restoration to health. His present address is 48th St. and Woodland Avenue, W. Philadelphia, Pa.

'00, Miller—Roberts '05. In the presence of only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties, Miss Grace Roberts and Samuel L. Miller were united in marriage at the home of the bride's mother, on Wednesday morning, Aug. 23, at 9 o'clock, the Rev. S. B. Bidlack, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, of Espy, of which the bride and bridegroom are members, officiating. The beautiful ring ceremony was used.

The couple were unattended and immediately following the ceremony left in an automobile for Berwick where they boarded a D. L. & W. train for New York City. After a few days stay in that city they continued their wedding trip visiting various cities along the Hudson river and the Catskill mountains. Upon their return after spending a short time at Ocean Grove, they made their residence in their newly furnished home in Espy.

The bridegroom is employed as teller in the Farmers National Bank and is very well and favorably known. The bride was one of Espy's successful school teachers and both have a host of friends who wish them all the success of married life.

'00, Belig, (Yentzer) Maud. Early in June a postal card, embellished with a pictured stork, was received, saying: "Arrived May 29, 1911; Name—Carlotta Yentzer; Mother doing nicely; Baby doing nicely; Father doing nicely." Carlotta resides with Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Yentzer, Cherokee & W. Willow Grove Ave's, St. Martin's, Phila.

'00, Teple, Nettie. From the Morning Press, July 17: "A belated wedding announcement that will come as a surprise to their many friends is that of the wedding of Miss Nettie Teple, daughter of Mrs. William Teple of Catawissa, and a teacher in the county schools for the last ten years, to James Hile, of Franklin township, which was solemnized at Wilmington, Delaware, July 28, 1910, the day following the wedding of her brother, James Teple, secretary of the African Ostrich Farm, and Miss Helen Mausteller of town.

Miss Teple had already accepted a position as teacher in the Rupert schools and the young couple kept their secret well. None of their friends had an intimation that they were married, Mrs. Hile making her home with her sister, Mrs. McClelland Shultz, of Rupert. She is a graduate of the class of 1900, Bloomsburg State Normal School, and has since taught in the schools of Catawissa and Franklin township."

'00, Kehler, J. Grant, is doing well as a lawyer at Mt. Carmel, Pa. He is associated with his brother D. W. Kehler, Esq. Grant was interested in a case before the Columbia County Courts last May.

'00, Hassler, Blanche. The following clipping from the Wilkes-Barre Record, January 20, 1911, was received by the QUARTERLY too late for the last issue, in April: "Eugene F. Cowell, local manager of the Western Union Telegraph Co., and Miss Ada Blanche Hassler, daughter of Mrs. Margaret A. Hassler of 16 Mallery Place, were married yesterday morning at 9 o'clock at the bride's home. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. C. E. Mogg, pastor of Central M. E. church, assisted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Kerr, pastor of Memorial Presbyterian church, in the presence of only the immediate families. The bridesmaid was Miss Emma L. Hassler, a sister of the bride, and the best man Ernest C. Hassler, a brother of the bride. The wedding march was played by J. Truman Evans. The bride was charmingly gowned in a blue traveling suit, with hat to match. The bridesmaid wore a white embroidered robe. A wedding breakfast was served by Mrs. Hochreiter. The tables and rooms were prettily decorated in pink and white. Mr. and Mrs. Cowell left on a wedding trip and after Feb. 15 they will be at home at 16 Mallery Place."

Mrs. Cowell has been teaching in the Wilkes-Barre city schools since her graduation in 1900.

'01, Ridge, W. W. was elected Supervising principal of the Centralia public schools, attached thereto is a very substantial salary.

'01, Snyder, Clark, who was practicing law at Au Sable, Mich., lost everything except the lives of himself, wife and baby, in the disaster that destroyed the town in the recent forest fires that devastated a wide area in the north west. He is as plucky as when he was a star in Normal athletics, and has opened an office in Tawas City, Mich.

'01, Albertson, E. Joe. The Normal QUARTERLY has received an exchange of more than ordinary interest in the receipt of the Manila High School Annual, which is dedicated to E. Joe Albertson, a former town boy and a graduate of the Bloomsburg State Normal School, now superintendent of the schools of Manila. The annual contains a fine likeness of Mr. Albertson and the dedication reads: "To the generous friend of boys and girls." The publication is filled with interesting data, including articles on the various classes, debating societies, etc., with reproductions of the school buildings and the pupils. A rather interesting fact is that all the boys are dressed in white.

'01, Mordar.—Oman (Special '08). Myron D. Mordan and Della Agnes

Oman were married Wednesday, Aug. 9, at the home of the bride's parents on Light Street Road, Bloomsburg. The officiating minister was Rev. Alexander Scott of Orangeville. A local paper says:

The home was artistically decorated in palms and cut flowers, while a trailing mountain vine added much to the beauty of the decorations.

Both the bride and groom are well and favorably known in this section, the groom being a graduate and post-graduate of the Bloomsburg State Normal School, after which he took a special course at State College. For the last few years he has been engaged in teaching, filling the position as principal of the Orangeville High School and instructor in the Benton Summer School.

The bride is a former student of the Normal School and has since filled the position as book-keeper and cashier for the Bell Telephone Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Mordan took an extensive wedding tour, taking in Harrisburg, Philadelphia and Atlantic City and other points of interest. Returning they occupy their newly erected home at Wellersville.

'01, Diffenderfer, Maud, now Mrs. Maud Elder, is located at Roy, New Mexico. She and her husband are "homesteaders" having located on three hundred and twenty acres. They are also teaching in the public schools of the Territory.

'01, Larrabee, Louise M., has accepted a very fine position as teacher of Domestic Science in Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands. She sailed from San Francisco August 30. She is delighted with the prospects of her position.

'02, Little, Josiah T. (Sp.Course) was married Sept. 12, 1911, to Miss Carola Gunton of Bloomsburg. The ceremony was performed on the porch of the cottage, "Camp Content" at Forks along Fishingcreek, beneath an archway of ferns and goldenrod. The officiating minister was Rev. J. E. Byers, pastor of the bride, assisted by Rev. T. E. Jepson, pastor of the groom. Mr. Little is employed by the State Live Stock Board and is now stationed at Johnstown where they will make their home.

'02, Menhennett, Grace, or rather Mrs. Robert Hugo Vorck, resides at No. 16 Sherman Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

'03, Hayes, Thomas (Sp.Course). An invitation to attend the commencement exercises of the medical class of the University of Vermont at Burlington, received by Thomas D. Powell of Plains, carries with it the glad news that Thomas Hays, the well known Bloomsburg ball player is now a full fledged physician.

Mr. Hays' graduation shows what sheer pluck and stick-to-it-iveness will do. Ten or twelve years ago, Dr. Hayes never heard of the "isms" and "ologies" of modern day education. His was a meagre training, gathered in a few short years in the schools of Plains. He later became proficient as a ball player and was given an opportunity to attend Bloomsburg Normal School. He spent four or five years here, and although he was given flattering offers to play professional ball he stuck to his determination to complete his college course.

Dr. Hays, while at Normal, was assistant "gym" instructor and going to the University of Vermont took up the same work in winter and played base ball in the summer. After six years of diligent application, "Tom" Hays is graduated an M. D. His father and family live in Hudson and they, too, are sharing the many messages of congratulations.—Morning Press July 16.

'03, Gresh, M. Edith, has been doing very satisfactory work in the schools of Orange, N. J. She has an Italian class of forty. She likes the class and work very much, although it uses up a great amount of nervous energy. She has been re-appointed for this year with a very desirable increase in salary.

'04, Ikeler, Irene, was married Wednesday, Oct. 4, at high twelve, to David K. Sloan, '05, (Special College Preparatory.) The marriage was solemnized at the home of the bride in Millville amidst a mass of autumn foliage. We take a few extracts from a local paper:

"The ceremony was indeed a beautiful one. To add to the happiness of the occasion the sun burst through the lowering clouds as if in a benediction just as the bridal party entered the parlor.

The bride was beautifully attired in a white marquesette gown over satin duchesse trimmed with pearl ornaments and Irish point laceentrain. Her veil was caught up by lilies of the valley. Her dress was a beautiful creation and was entirely hand made. She carried bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Her traveling suit was blue.

A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony, at which Mrs. Dodson of Bloomsburg, catered. The bride's table was decorated with chrysanthemums and smilax, the bride's bouquet being suspended over the table.

The groom is a very popular fellow. He attended the Orangeville High School, Bloomsburg Normal School, and Penna. State College from which latter institution he graduated in 1910.

The bride has many friends throughout the county. She is a graduate of the Bloomsburg Normal School and has taught school in the county.

All of their many friends join in wishing them a very happy and prosperous life. Several congratulatory telegrams were received during the wedding breakfast.

The gifts were many and costly and came from all directions.

After an extended trip to New York, up the Hudson and across to Boston, they will be at home at Pottstown, where the groom is located. The first part of their trip will be by automobile to Scranton."

'04, Crossley, Pearl In a beautiful church wedding at the Morningside Presbyterian church, New York City, on Wednesday, June 28, Miss Pearl A. Crossley, daughter of A. D. Crossley, formerly of West Hemlock township, became the bride of Mr. William J. Pickett, of New York City.

Miss Stella Crossley, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Joseph Oliver, a college friend of the groom, was best man. Four brothers of the bride were ushers. The bride was given away by her father. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of the bride, No. 371 West 120th street.

Mrs. Pickett is a graduate of the Bloomsburg Normal School and the groom is teacher of mathematics at Cooper Union. Mr. and Mrs. Pickett will spend several weeks on a wedding trip, and after September 1st will be home at No. 200 Wadsworth avenue, New York City.—Danville News.

'04, Goyituey (Canfield) Anna. We received, late in June, a very delightful letter from Anna whose post office address is Copperton, New Mexico. We know she will pardon the liberty we take in telling you a few of the things she told us; she said among other things: "And where can my classmates be and what have they done in the last seven years to improve and better themselves or others? I should like to be present at the class reunions of 1911 and once more see my friends, teachers and class mates.

As for myself I have been in the Indian service since my graduation from the Normal, holding the position of teacher, housekeeper and boys' matron.

In March, my husband and I left the Indian service and my husband entered the Forest service, as Forest Ranger on the Zuni National Forest.

We have a beautiful place to live in, in the midst of a pine forest and we are also blest with two of the dearest children.

Our oldest girl, Helen, is just three years old to-day and our boy is just one and one-half years old. We are a very happy family of four.

While home this spring I saw Susie Rayos Marmon, '06, and her two babies; the youngest a girl, was just a month old.

My best wishes go to my Alma Mater and its students.

Please send the B. S. N. S. QUARTERLY to Copperton, New Mex."

'05, Laubač, Sarah May. We find the following in the Daily Sentinel June 16. "Miss Sarah May Laubach and Chauncy I. Albertson, both of this town, were wedded by the Rev. E. H. Yocum pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, in Bellefonte, on Thursday afternoon. The bride is a graduate of the Normal School and the groom is a graduate of Eastman's Business College of Poughkeepsie. After a wedding tour throughout the New England states and Canada, they will reside at Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

'05, Brown, W. Earl. A Wilkes-Barre paper tells us that a marriage license was issued in Luzerne county, Thursday, Oct. 5, to W. Earl Brown of Main township, Columbia county and Blanche D. Frey of Wilkes-Barre. But "further deponent saith not."

'05, Howell (Richart) Margaret, is now located at Mansfield, Pa. Her husband, L. Lester Richart, is instructor in Higher Mathematics at the Normal School located there.

'06, Vollrath, Rosa, Lancaster. At the home of Mrs. Christiana Vollrath, this city, at noon yesterday, her daughter, Miss Rosa E. Vollrath, became the bride of Mr. Edward C. Buchheit of Indiana, Pa., the marriage culminating a romance that started when the bridegroom was a student at Franklin and Marshall College. Rev. H. M. Smith of Delmont, Pa., officiated, and the attendants were Mrs. William Smith, sister of the bride, W. F. Buchheit of Allentown, brother of the bridegroom, Miss Anna Vollrath, Mrs. William Buchheit, Chas. W. Johnson of Uniontown and Jas. Fairbairn of Utica, N. Y.—Phila.

Inquirer June 28.

'06, Andreas, Harry, who was graduated from the Medical College of the Univ. of Pennsylvania last June, has been appointed a resident physician in the Cooper Hospital, Camden, N. J.

'06, Kelchner, Ethel L., was married at Wilkes-Barre, June 28, to Ira Calvin Stephenson, a member of Troop B, State Constabulary stationed at the Wyoming barracks. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. Kerr. They will reside for the present at Wyoming.

'06, Masten, Christella, greatly enjoys her work as a teacher in the city schools of Binghamton, N. Y. She resides at 12 Exchange street.

'06, Weimer, John (Sp. Coll. Prep.) The Morning Press, Sept. 1st, says: Mr. and Mrs. John Weimer arrived in Bloomsburg yesterday and will take up their residence at 428 E. Third street, with Mr. Weimer beginning his work as head of the physical department of the Bloomsburg State Normal School at the opening of the Fall Term. Mr. and Mrs. Weimer came to Bloomsburg upon their return from their wedding tour, the ceremony being solemnized at York, August 15, with the bride, Miss Sarah Shaffer, a highly esteemed York girl.

"Chief" Ernest Schmaltz is the assistant physical director. These announcements will be gladly received by Normal alumni and the friends generally for it is realized that with John Weimer head of the physical department, and Mr. Schmaltz as his assistant, there will be a combination that will bring back to Normal much of the prestige in the athletic world that the school enjoyed during the Aldinger regime.

Both the head of the department and his assistant are among the best athletes Normal has ever turned out. They were classmates and teammates and after leaving Normal both figured prominently in the athletic world. They were members of some of the best base ball teams Normal ever had, back in the days when the Bloomsburg Normal team had something on nearly all the college teams in the country.

It looks as though a more ideal combination could not have been secured and it is a practical certainty that athletics will have a big boom at the Normal.

'06, Creasy, R. C. Some one writes: R. C. Creasy has strayed away—lost in medicine. Some one after a search has found him. After attending the Medico Chirurgical College for four years, successfully graduated 1910. He then took up the practical side, entering the North Western General Hospital, Phila., Pa., June 21st, 1910, remained until Dec. 1st, then entered the Medico Chirurgical Hospital, Phila., June 1st, 1911, discontinues hospital work and goes into general practice in Philadelphia.

'07, Harter, Grace D., was married in the Emanuel Lutheran Church, Nuremburg, Pa., to Mr. Scott A. Klinger, Thursday, June 29. Rev. A. Pfeuger, the bride's pastor, officiated.

The church was beautifully decorated with potted plants, ferns, eight spruce arches entwined with rhododendrons and numerous other flowers making it a bower of beauty. The bride, groom and attendants met at exactly 12 o'clock, noon, under a large floral marriage bell and the pastor pronounced the ceremony in a beautiful and impressive manner. More than two hundred relatives and friends were present. At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal party and the invited guests repaired to the home of the bride's parents where a reception was held and a bounteous repast served. The house decorations were white and pink flowers, and the effect was most pleasing.

The wedding presents received by the newly married couple were numerous, handsome and valuable.

Mr. and Mrs. Klinger left Fern Glen station on the 3 o'clock train for Kansas. The groom is assistant station agent and operator at Fern Glen station, has a wide acquaintance and is admired for his good qualities. They are at home at Fern Glen. The best wishes of a host of friends accompany them as they start out on life's voyage.

'07, Barrow, Mame R., is teaching at Plainfield, N. J., and is meeting with well merited success.

'07, Anstock, Pearl D. We find the following in a local paper June 26. "One of the surprises of the day is the marriage of Miss Pearl D. Anstock, daughter of Mrs. Fannie Anstock of West Main street, to Arthur Holt of Hawthorne, N. J., which was solemnized at high noon June 23. The ceremony was performed at the Presbyterian Manse in Paterson, N. J., by the Rev. Herbert B. Howe. She has just completed her fourth year as an efficient teacher in the schools of Hawthorne, N. J. The groom holds a responsible position with the New York Telephone Co. in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Holt after their return from a fortnight wedding trip will be at home to their many friends in New York City.

'07, McHenry, Earl (Sp Course). Earl K. McHenry of this place, who is a student at Peeksville Military Academy, has been signally honored by his fellow students this term. This is his senior year and he has been made captain of Company A., captain of the foot ball team, manager of the track team, president of A. X. E. fraternity, president of the senior class and president of the advisory board. — Forest City News.

'07, Dodson, Harry, is filling a position in Philadelphia in the office of Henry P. Dobson, carpet and rug manufacturer, as book keeper. Since residing in Philadelphia he has taken a course in the Pierce Business College.

'08, Morgan, Laura W. The Atlantic City Daily Press has the following article regarding the marriage of Miss Laura W. Morgan, a Bloomsburg girl and a graduate of the Bloomsburg High School and of the Bloomsburg State Normal School of the class of 1908, since which time she has been engaged in teaching, being employed the last year in the Atlantic City schools.

Cupid captivated another public school teacher Saturday, when Miss Laura W. Morgan, who taught last winter at Texas avenue, became the bride of Vincel G. Stein. In company with several friends the young couple repaired to the residence of Rev. Herbert M. Gesner, of the First Presbyterian church, where the ceremony was performed.

Miss Annie Gordon of London attended the bride.

Mr. Stein is a member of the Commercial Department of the Atlantic City Gas Company. He hails from St. Louis, Mo. The bride is one of Bloomsburg's fair young ladies.

The bride was gowned in lavender chiffon over white satin and carried a large bouquet of marshanelle roses. Miss Gordon, of London, a friend of the bride, wore blue batiste and carried a bouquet of roses. — Morning Press, Sept. 20.

'08, Deighmiller, Ellie R—Hartman, Kimber, '10. Miss Ellie R. Deighmiller, daughter of Henry

Deighmiller, of Hemlock township, and Kimber Hartman, son of John Hartman, of Buckhorn, were wedded in their newly furnished home in West Berwick, Friday evening. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. E. Harman, pastor of the Lutheran church, of Berwick. The bride and groom were unattended.

The bridegroom is one of the teachers of the Ferris Heights school in West Berwick and is well known. He is also a member of the Citizens band of this town. The bride was principal of the Buckhorn school and is highly respected in that community.—Daily Sentinel, Apr. 15.

'08, Solleder, Albert (Sp. Coll. Prep.) A local paper says: Albert Solleder, who has been spending the past year as manager of a corps of canvassers for the Chicago Portrait Company, dropped in at his home and gave his friends a genuine surprise on Thursday morning. Mr. Solleder has been operating in the states of Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin. Indeed so successful has he been that he wears a medal and also carries a gold watch which was presented to him as a reward of merit. Mr. Solleder expects to go to State College this fall and finish his course in Civil Engineering. We have no doubt of his success.

'08, Petrilli, Francesco, is a teacher in the public schools of Hazleton and is doing good work. An interesting little story on the Calabrian earthquake written by Francesco appeared in the Hazleton Plain Speaker July 20th, 1911.

'09, Bevan, Mary, has been elected a teacher in the public schools in West Philadelphia.

'09, Eastman, Clara (Sp. in Business Course) was married at the home of her parents in Bloomsburg, Tuesday, Sept. 12, to Dr. Heber W. Youngken of Quakertown, Pa. The beautiful ring ceremony of the Pentecostal Church was performed by the pastor, Rev. G. H. Trumbauer.

The bridegroom is at present an instructor in Botany and Biology in the Medico-Chirurgical College at Philadelphia. He is also studying medicine at that institution. He is a graduate in Pharmacy at that institution in the class of 1905. He received the Bachelor of Arts degree at Bucknell University in 1909. Since that time, until now, he has been practicing medicine in Philadelphia.

They will be at home 6106 Grays Avenue, West Philadelphia, after October 1st.

'09, Barrow, H. R. The following item was taken from the Republican News of Hamilton, Ohio, March 27, 1911.

The many friends of Bessie Sharkey were surprised to hear of her marriage to Harrison R. Barrow of Ringtown, Pa., in Cincinnati on Saturday afternoon at the elegant new home of the bride's aunt Mrs. Wm. Worley.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Brughn of the Presbyterian Church in the presence of a few relatives and immediate friends only. The affair tho unpretentious was quite pretty. The bride was dressed in a beautiful gray tailored suit. After the ceremony an elaborate course dinner was served after which the couple left for their home in Hamilton.

The bride is one of Hamilton's most estimable women while Mr. Barrow who is a recent graduate of the Cincinnati College of Embalming has taken an interest with the C. W. Gath Co. of this city. Mr. Barrow comes highly recommended and the acquisition of him with this reliable and up-to-date undertaking establishment will add greatly to its already well equipped force.

'09, Major, Kathleen. THE QUARTERLY has received the following: "Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Major announce the marriage of their daughter Kathleen to Dr. Harry A. Brown, Wednesday, September sixth, 1911, Lehman, Pennsylvania," and this is all the information we can give you.

'09, Pooley, Edith. Because the congregation wanted a married man for a pastor, Miss Edith Pooley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Pooley, will be wedded early this morning, several months before she had originally intended being a bride.

At the home of her parents, Mr.

and Mrs. Wm. Pooley in Fernville at 6 o'clock this morning, she will wed Rev. C. M. Griffith, and the newly wedded couple will leave on the 7:31 a. m. D. L. & W. train for Narrowsburg, N. Y., where the groom is pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church.

The young man is a student at Drew Theological Seminary and while a student there, the opportunity came to serve the Narrowsburg congregation, providing he was a married man, giving the church three days a week and devoting four days to study.

He quickly wired his fiancee the situation and she agreed to advance the wedding day, with a result that Rev. E. R. Heckman will officiate at the ceremony that will unite them in marriage early today.

The bride is a most highly esteemed county teacher, having taught the Fernville school for several years.—Morning Press, Apr. 14. And the event came off on schedule time.

'10, Tobin, Jennie E. is teaching in the E. A. Steven public school, Camden, N. J., having work in the fourth grade. Her sister, Teresa '09, is teaching third grade in the Lincoln school, same city. The family have removed from Mt. Carmel to Camden, and reside at 938 Cooper street. The Normal has no sons or daughters more enthusiastic or loyal than these two.

'10. Longenberger, Hazel. Miss Hazel Longenberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Longenberger, of Mainville, and H. A. Persch, of Philadelphia, were quietly wedded Friday, by the Rev. E. R. Heckman, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, of town. The ceremony was performed at the parsonage and was witnessed by only the bride's parents.

Mr. Persch is general manager of the Mutual Realty Company, of Philadelphia, where they will reside. Mrs. Persch has a large number of friends in the county who extend their congratulations and wish her a long and happy life.—Sentinel, Apr. 22.

'10, Brill, Julia, has been unanimously elected assistant principal of the Huntington township High School, Luzerne county. Miss Brill was not an applicant for the position, but was expecting to teach the same school in that township which she taught last year. This unsolicited promotion is very gratifying.

'10, Koser, Josephine. We clip the following from the Nanticoke items in the Wilkes-Barre Record, April 26: "At noon yesterday at the bride's home on Walnut street occurred the marriage of Miss Josephine Koser and Byron Fairchild, two popular and well known young people of this town. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William Harrison Decker of the First Presbyterian church, and was witnessed by immediate relatives and friends only. Attired in a becoming gown of white marquisette over silk, the bride looked very handsome. She was unattended and was given in marriage by her uncle, Judge John M. Garman of Wilkes-Barre. The lavish use of palms, ferns and cut flowers provided a charming setting for the nuptial group. A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Fairchild left on a wedding journey. The bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. Florence Koser, is possessed of many attractive qualities, a graduate of the Nanticoke High School and of Bloomsburg State Normal and for some time taught in the public schools. The groom is a son of the late William Fairchild and is employed by the Valley Trust Co."

'10, Gilner, Grace A. From the Scranton Tribune-Republican, October 11: "Miss Grace A. Gilner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Gilner, and Frederick W. Zane, of Empire, Panama, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Sterling, Pa., Wednesday afternoon of last week at 3 o'clock, by Rev. W. E. Webster. Mr. and Mrs. Zane left immediately for Philadelphia, where, after a short visit at the home of his parents they will go to Panama, where the groom is employed as an electrical engineer."

'11, Sharadin, A. J. and Georgena McHenry, '10, a teacher in the Hazleton city schools, were married November 26, 1910, by Rev. J. E. Doerr, in St. Stephen's Lutheran church, Wilmington, Del. The wedding was kept a secret until June of this year. Mr. Sharadin and wife are residing at 27 S. Shillingford street, Springfield, Mass. He has entered upon a course in the Springfield Training School to prepare himself for a physical directorship for which he possesses natural qualifications. He will be missed at the Normal School, where he has long been a star.

'11, Steiner, L. May, was married at high twelve, Thursday, June 27—the day after Commencement—to Geo. E. Gamble, Jr., of Philadelphia, at the home of the bride's mother, in Bloomsburg. The beautiful ring ceremony was performed by Rev. J. E. Byers, pastor of the Lutheran church. Mr. Gamble is a noted violinist. They will reside in Philadelphia.

'11, Ericson, Carl, (sp. course), has matriculated at Ursinus College, Collegeville, Pa., and is a member of the foot ball team of that institution. He appeared in the game on Saturday, October 7, against the Pennsylvania University team.

'11, Boyle, John. Scarcely had the happy scenes, and the echo of the joyous acclamations of Commencement week passed away when the wires brought the startling information that John Boyle—"our Jack"—had passed to the Great Beyond, after a brief illness of appendicitis. The following is from the Hazleton Daily Standard, Thursday, July 27:

"John Boyle is dead!" This was the sad and shocking news that vibrated through McAdoo and vicinity late last evening, and in consequence the entire community mourns. Several days ago the young man was stricken with appendicitis. The best medical attention available was promptly secured and the disease responded to treatment. The patient held his own for a few days and up to yesterday morning showed an improvement. A sudden change for the worse came in his condition and scarcely before the anxious watchers at his bedside had time to realize, he had passed peacefully away at 8:30 o'clock last night. The deceased was the youngest son of Daniel C. and Mrs. Boyle, and was an exceptionally bright young man, who gave every promise of making his mark in the world had he been spared. Only a few weeks ago he graduated with high honors from the Bloomsburg Normal School. He was a dutiful son and brother, and a most exemplary young man. He was energetic and a sincere temperance worker.

The funeral was held Friday morning, and was the signal for the assemblage of a vast outpouring of friends, many of whom came long journeys to pay a last tender tribute of respect to his memory. The cortege moved from the parental home at 9 o'clock, and proceeded with slow, respectful tread to St. Patrick's church, where a high mass of requiem was offered up by Rev. Father McConnon, at the conclusion of which interment was made in St. Patrick's cemetery.

The Alumni of the Bloomsburg State Normal School, of which he was a member, attended the final obsequies. "Peace to his memory."

The following members of the Bloomsburg Normal School Alumni served as pall bearers: James Corrigan, 1911; Cormac Kennedy, 1911; Daniel Carr, 1911; Joseph Lorenzetty, 1911; John Skweir, 1910; Aloysius Costello.

Previous to the funeral, the Alumni Association—six of whom were members of the class of 1911—met and took the following action:

Resolutions adopted at an informal meeting of the B. S. N. S. Alumni Association, at McAdoo, Pa., in memory of the late John J. Boyle:

WHEREAS, It hath pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst, our late Alumnus, John J. Boyle; be it

Resolved, That we, the members of the Class of 1911 and other members of the Alumni Association of the Bloomsburg Normal School, express our sympathy at having lost so promising a member of our Association. Be it further

Resolved, That the members of Alumni Association remember him in their intercession to Almighty God, beseeching Him to have mercy upon his soul. Be it

Resolved, That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to his parents, brothers and sisters in their sad bereavement. Finally, be it

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to his parents, a copy sent to the annual meeting of the Alumni Association, a copy sent to the Philologian Literary Society, a copy sent to the registrar to be published in the next issue of the QUARTERLY, and a copy sent to each of the local presses.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATIONS—REUNIONS

Special preparations in nearly all places interested are being made for the annual meeting which will be held generally during some evening of the County Institute week. We are advised that alumni are getting busy in the counties of Dauphin, Luzerne, Lackawanna, Lycoming, Mifflin, Schuylkill, Snyder, Susquehanna, and Wayne county. It is also expected that associations will be organized for Hazleton and vicinity, and Union county. In only very few instances are those who have attended one of these meetings missing at subsequent ones. They are social feasts, rich in companionship and reminiscences. We heard some one say last winter: "Why can we not have two or three of these affairs during the year?"

The alumni residing in the vicinity of these meetings ought not only to be present, but aid, so far as is possible, the committees in perfecting the arrangements by promptly responding to notices and by inducing the inert to get under headway.

The editor of the Alumni department of the QUARTERLY realizes that many items in these columns read like ancient history, but we can not help that. No QUARTERLY was issued in July, the Catalog taking its place; again, accounts of several events happening many months ago reached us only recently. However, we propose to give you all the news, old or new, respecting former students that we can get hold of, provided it has not heretofore appeared in these columns.

We hereby thank the many old students who favor us with interesting items. We are not able to write to each of you. Please accept this as a big hearty THANK YOU.

Because of the omission of the July number of the QUARTERLY a few statistics of the base ball season must be given as a matter of record.

FOOT BALL.

The foot ball team is showing decided improvement under the direction of coach Weimer. The large number of inexperienced men and the desire to give each candidate a chance has made smooth team work hard to secure in time for the early games. From the side lines, the material looks good.

The defeat by Lafayette on Sept. 23 at Easton, was a foregone conclusion. The tie with Wilkes-Barre H. S. on Sept. 30, is not so easily explained. The defensive work of both teams was fair but the offensive plays were not sufficiently well executed to gain consistently.

The following is the line up for the game Sept 30th.

Bloomsburg.	Wilkes-Barre H. S.

Time of quarters, 15 and 10 minutes.

REMAINING GAMES ON NORMAL SCHEDULE.

The remaining games on the schedule of the Bloomsburg State Normal team for this year are as follows:

Oct. 14, Dickinson Seminary at Williamsport.

Oct. 28, Bucknell Academy at Lewisburg.

Nov. 11, Lock Haven at Lock Haven.

Nov. 18, Wyoming Seminary at Bloomsburg.

Nov. 25, Bellefonte Academy at Bloomsburg.

Nov. 30th, Thanksgiving Day, Gettysburg College Res. at Bloomsburg.

Oct. 7th, in a hard fought game, on Normal field Saturday, the Carlisle Indian Reserves won over the lighter Normal team in a rattling contest, by the score of 5-0, a blocked Normal kick, attempted from near the Normal goal, permitting the only touchdown of the game, one in which, with the exception of this fluke, Normal outplayed their opponents, showing greatly improved form over a week ago, executing forward pass in good shape, but still manifesting a pronounced weakness in their tackling.

Coach O'Bryan of Carlisle, who, by the way, was a member of the Harrisburg basket ball team when they played against Bloomsburg last winter, expressed himself as pleased with both the work of the officials and the treatment the team received. The lineup:

Philo Society

The work for Philo. this year is very promising. A large number of talented students have been taken in.

The Society has no debts and the treasury fund is near the $100.00 mark.

Reuunion night, Thanksgiving, the society will present the drama, "Alabama."

The programs have been of a musical nature. Oct 21st opera Faust will be presented, the next week Il Trovatore.

Those who wish to secure Philo. pins may obtain them by sending their names with enclosure to Warren Jones, chairman of pin committee. The prices are : Gold filled 75c., gold plated $1.25, solid gold $2.00. The quality is good and the design neat and attractive. They have the safety clasp.

Calliepien Society

The Calliepien Society seems more prosperous than ever. Many new members have been received.

On the evening of September 16,

1911, the reception in honor of the new members was given. While the society misses the old members, who helped make it what it is, those remaining are greatly encouraged to find some of the new members taking an active part in the programs, and endeavoring to make Callie a bigger, better, brighter-than-ever society. An interesting private program has been given at every regular meeting this term.

The society intends to remodel the hall and to make the final payment on the piano this year.

The various committees are busy planning work for a most successful year.

The society has not fully decided whether it will engage a company or give a drama on the evening of its anniversary Feb. 22, 1912, but it hopes to see every old Callie here Feb. 22, 1912.

Y. M. C. A.

The work for this year has started and is moving along in a pretty satisfactory manner.

In the membership campaign a fairly large percentage of all the boys were enrolled.

The annual Fall Reception for new students was held the first Saturday night after school opened, and was well attended.

The Bible study work was begun at a joint meeting the first week of school. "The Life of St. Paul" will be the subject this year.

At the next three mid-week meetings there will be reports and short talks from our Northfield delegates. Delegates will go to the Eastern Union of Student Volunteers Conference, which will be held at Lafayette College, Easton, Oct. 20-22.

Y. W. C. A.

The Christian Association girls came back to Normal in time to greet the new students.

We begin the year with one hundred and twenty-three members, and the prospects of a very healthy general interest in association affairs.

A band of twenty-seven girls is studying Russell's "Parables of Jesus" and finding the work full of interest.

Preparations are being made for a masquerade social on Hallowe'en and for a bazaar to be held just before the holiday vacation.

COMMENCEMENT ITEMS

The following items of belated news are entered here for purpose of record in default of our usual July news number.

The Commencement season of 1911, brought the usual large number of friends and alumni to enjoy what was pronounced by all to be one of the most interesting and satisfactory term-closings within their experience.

The Baccalaureate sermon was delivered to the graduating class by Dr. D. J. Waller.

The Class of 1912 presented as its drama, Shakespeare's "As You Like It." This was an unusual undertaking but its great success proved the effort worth while.

The graduating class was one of the very best that has ever been sent out from this school. Their Ivy Day and Class Night programs were particularly well presented.

The classes whose reunions came this year were very enthusiastic, and only those who have attended such reunions can appreciate the pleasure these occasions bring.

The Commencement Address was delivered by President William Anthony Granville, L. L. D. of Pennsylvania College at Gettysburg.

NEW MEMBERS OF THE FACULTY

Seldom has it fallen to the lot of the QUARTERLY reporter to chronicle so many changes in the teaching force of the school as have taken place since our last issue. No less than eight new members have been added to the Faculty this fall.

The Rev. William Brill, a teacher of ability and experience has taken charge of the work in History. Mr. Brill comes to us from the Bloomsburg High School where his services were highly appreciated and relinquished with reluctance.

Mr. John Weimer, who needs no introduction to our readers, is the new Physical Director with Mr. E. R. Schmaltz as his assistant. There is already some of the aforetime "ginger" in the doings on Mt. Olympus under his leadership.

We are glad to welcome as the new instructors in our Music Department Mrs. Florence Hall Clague of Chicago, Ill., and Miss Elizabeth Wildman Dorchester, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs. Clague is a graduate of Oberlin Conservatory, Oberlin, Ohio, in Organ, Piano, Harmony, and Musical History, and has a wide and successful experience as a teacher. She is accompanied by her daughter Helen, who is registered as a student in the College Preparatory Department.

Miss Dorchester comes especially well prepared for her work as a teacher of vocal music. She has had broad training under various masters among whom are Richard T. Percy, organist of Marble Collegiate Church, New York City, and William L. Whitney of Boston, Mass., son of Myron Whitney and founder of the Whitney International School of Vocal Music.

Miss Virginia McQuiston, a highly gifted graduate of Shippensburg Normal School and of the Philadelphia Art School is the new instructor in drawing.

Mr. Geo. D. Cronan a graduate of the Oswego, N. Y. State Normal School reigns supreme in the Manual Training Room.

Mr. John Shambach comes to us from college to take the work of his brother, Jesse, who leaves to enter upon his own college course at Ann Arbor.

Mr. F. B. Cotner has entered upon his duties as assistant in the Biological Department.

THE FIRST WIRELESS MESSAGE

The wireless station installed at the school last spring has again been put into shape for work and is now able to intercept messages from many points in the eastern part of the country. About 40 stations have so far been heard, among which may be mentioned such widely separated points as Buffalo, N. Y., Wellfleet, Mass., Newport, R. I., Cape Hatteras, N. C., Philadelphia, Atlantic City, New York, Washington, etc.

The first message specifically directed to Bloomsburg was addressed to Mr. J. H. Dennis and was received on October 13th. It was sent from the Wanamaker station at Philadelphia and was readily received at the local station.

Much interest has been aroused by the installation of this station and a number of young men at the school are actively engaged in learning the details of this fascinating work.

Bloomsburg Students at College.

As usual at this season reports are coming in of the work done by our former students at the various colleges, and as usual the report is that Bloomsburg trained students stand up well at college.

This is true of representatives of the Normal as well as of the College Preparatory department of the school, though the latter have of course the advantage, and the ever increasing flow of former students toward college opportunities is evidence that this Normal School at least is not unfaithful to its duty in leading the way to higher educational opportunities and ideals.

A Chemistry Tea.

A very pleasant and unusual event in the social life of the school was the "chemistry tea" on Saturday, January 20. Invitations had been issued in unusual form on filter papers to all members of the Faculty by the laboratory assistants, Miss Mary Good and Miss Harriet Waller. Arriving members of the Faculty were served with tea and coffee and various other unusual but satisfying "chemicals" in laboratory utensils in a very novel way.

The New Course of Study.

The new course of study provided for by the School Code is smoothly under way for a second term at Bloomsburg. Some anticipated difficulties have not materialized, and the unexpected ones which have arisen have not proved serious obstacles to overcome.

Mr. W. B. Sutliff, who amuses his less serious hours with matters pertaining to the school program, has had numerous problems to solve in various individual cases occasioned by the lack of uniformity of preparation by various high schools of the state, but that so radical a change as that promised by the provisions of the School Code should have gone into effect with so little apparent disturbance of the life of the school is quite remarkable.

The principal unsettled feature of the new course appears to be the names to be applied to its various classes. It is hardly to be expected that class spirit and contests can flourish under the discouraging labels of "First Year" and "Second Year" and a change of some sort in class nomenclature is certain to be expected.

---

A pleasant feature of the Christmas holidays was the concerted attendance of certain Wilkes-Barre students of the school at one of that city's theaters. The box occupied by the party was appropriately decorated with B. S. N. S. pennants and aroused considerable interest on the part of the other attendants of the theatre.

An interesting incident of the evening's enjoyment was the presentation of a bouquet of flowers tied with the Normal colors to the star of the play, the display of the colors plainly identifying the senders of the flowers.

Athletics.

The foot-ball season closed on Thanksgiving Day with a well earned victory over Gettysburg College Reserves by a score of 11-0. The game was marked by excellent team work showing that the fine record of the last half of the season in comparison to the poor showing of the first, was due to the fact that the inexperienced material composing the team had at last responded to the excellent coaching of Weimer. The successive victories over Bucknell Reserves, Wyoming Seminary, Bellefonte Academy, and Gettysburg Reserves simply showed that the team had merely needed time to learn the game. The splendid showing made in the Indian game, which but for a block kick would have been a no score game, gave the first evidence of the team's latent power.

The climax of the season, as usual, came with the Wyoming Seminary game. November 18th was the date and the mud covered field at Bloomsburg, lined upon the north side by the Normal cohorts and banked upon the south by Wyoming's train load of students and followers, was the setting for the crowning athletic event of the year.

Wyoming won the toss and chose to defend the west goal with a strong wind at their backs.

The Seminary team full of confidence showed their most aggressive form during the first quarter. Behind splendid interference they skirted the ends for good gains. But with equal determination the Normal boys began smashing the interference and secured the ball on a fumble by Pauxtis. Realizing that the Seminary team was not so formidable as was feared, the Normal boys became aggressive. Miles relieved the strain by a 20 yard run, soon followed by a 40 yard kick by Dobson. Near the close of the first quarter Davis tried a drop kick from the 35 yard line but failed. It was Wyoming's ball on their 5 yard line when the quarter closed. Each team had been penalized 15 yards for hurdling, while Normal got 5 more for off side playing.

The second half ended with the ball in Normal's possession on their own 25 yard line. No score.

After a march around the field headed by the Bloomsburg band, the students again massed to continue to cheer their favorites to renewed efforts in the second half.

Dobson kicked off, Stookey running the ball back 30 yards. On the first down Seminary fumbled, and a Bloomsburg man had the ball. Then Normal began her series of brilliant forward passes which brought the ball within striking distance of Wyoming's goal. From the 35 yard line Davis executed a splendid drop kick, the sphere sailing high above the cross bar and cutting its very center. Nothing more spectacular has ever marked the long series of games between these two rivals than this play, which not only gave the Normal team victory, but threw the balance of the many contests in Bloomsburg's favor. The third quarter soon ended with the ball in Wyoming's possession on their 5 yard line.

With defeat confronting them the Seminary team started the last quarter with a rush. A delayed pass and fake play around the end netted 20 yards for Wyoming. A few more rushes brought the ball to Normal's 22 yard line. It was at this point that the Wyoming team really lost its chance, for on the first down Pauxtis attempted a field goal. It failed and the ball was Normal's on the 50 yard line. Dobson kicked out of danger. It was so for but a moment. Something went wrong with Normal's defense. Stung by her lost opportunity Wyoming had rushed the ball to Normal's 5 yard line. It was first down and two minutes to play. A crash into the line and three yards more were gained. The play was near the corner of the field and in full view of scores of spectators. Capt. Pauxtis was called upon for another line plunge. It was a play into which each man put his last ounce of strength. It was met by a stonewall defense. The Normal boys responded nobly to Capt. Miles and the attack dropped in its tracks. When the players were untangled the ball was in the outstretched arms of a Wyoming man blocked on every side by Normal players, while over a foot of space lay between the ball and that coveted white line.

It was Normal's ball. A forward pass to Davis netted fifteen yards. Then Dobson kicked beyond the center of the field and here the game ended. Score, Normal 3, Wyoming 0.

A WORD OF EXPLANATION.

A good deal of unpleasant feeling was aroused by what was assumed to be a Wyoming version of the game which appeared in the Wilkes-Barre papers. A letter from Manager Wolf of the Seminary team disclaimed any part in inspiring such an unsportsmanlike article.

I shall answer the many queries brought out by this article by quoting from the published words of an unbiased spectator who had the privilege of the side lines. This writer has been a keen follower and critic of foot-ball since his own playing days and has never in any way been connected with the Normal School. He says:

"The writer was directly over the play in the closing minutes of the game in which the article claims Wyoming scored. It was a mass play upon which Wyoming attempted to score and was met in the same manner. The two teams met and dropped to the ground and when the players were dislodged the ball was in the field of play, a Wyoming man holding it and Normal men blocking him on every side. Wyoming scored no touchdown then or at any other time."

"Coach Quay of the Seminary who was never at a loss, throughout the game, to express his opinion of any play, stood beside the writer when the play in question was made. He had no word of protest to offer, for there was no ground for complaint." The fact that the ball was in the arms of a Seminary player, more than a foot from the goal, and he stretched to the limit, was so plainly seen by dozens of spectators that there was no question about it until some overzealous youth from up the river relieved his feelings by writing the article in question.

ODDS AND ENDS.

Dobson is the best man ever seen on Normal field in making long forward passes.

The defeat of Bellefonte Academy was really the greatest achievement of the season. They have a great team.

A victory at Kingston last year and another this year at Bloomsburg puts us one ahead of Wyoming.

Capt. Miles played in every game and was always a tower of strength to the team.

Capt. elect Smith has played a splendid game in the line during the past two years.

Quarterback Williams ran the plays well and gave some fine exhibitions of running the ball back through a broken field.

McDonald and Yerg added immensely to the strength of the team by their aggressive playing. Both were kept out of the game during the early part of the season by school duties.

Stark's work at center was first-class.

B MEN.

The following men received the B at the banquet held at the close of the season :

Brown, Davis, Dobson, Frye, Kester, McDonald, Miles, Capt. 1911, Smith, Capt. elect, 1912, Smoczynski, Stark, Walsh, Williams, Yerg.

A B A MEN.

Given to men who were the best of the second squad:

Atwood, C. Barrow, G. Barrow, Brill, Fisher, Gearhart, Hender-shot, Kreiger, Lilley, Maxey, Potts, Wagonseller, Wiant.

BASKET BALL SCHEDULE.

Manager Albert has arranged the following games: Jan. 19, Shippensburg S. N. S., here. Jan. 27, Bellefonte Academy, here. Feb. 3, Wyoming at Wyoming. Feb. 9, Shippensburg S. N. S. at Shippensburg. Feb. 10, Glen Lyon (Luzerne Alumni Team). Feb. 17, Lock Haven S. N. S., here. Feb. 24, Williamsport Dickinson Seminary, here. March 1, Wyoming Seminary here. March 8, Lock Haven S. N. S. at Lock Haven.

Four additional games pending.

Philologist Society.

The society held its annual reunion on Thanksgiving day. This was one of the most successful reunions ever held by the society. The gymnasium was so decorated as to represent a large arbor. The lattice work, consisting of blue and white crepe paper, extending across from railing to railing of the track and down at the sides forming arches. In the morning a meeting was held in Philo hall at 10:30. A program "Mignon" was well rendered. The features of the afternoon were the music by the orchestra and dancing. In the evening many persons witnessed the play "Alabama," given by members of the society. The play was very well rendered. Many old Philos showed their loyalty to the society by being present at the reunion. The class of 1911 was well represented.

The society has been following a regular line of work in their programs. Last term they studied some of the leading operas. This term they are studying various countries, their government, customs, art, literature and songs. The programs are very interesting as well as beneficial.

Several improvements have been made in Philo hall. The fire escape, memorial fund of class of '11, has been finished. New curtains same design as old ones, were put up at the windows. The walls, which were in a bad condition, were repaired. On account of the large attendance, more new seats have been ordered. These improvements add greatly to the hall.

Calliepie Society.

Callie still continues on her bright and prosperous way. New members are being continually added, many of whom are taking active parts in the work of the society.

Interesting private programs are being prepared and rendered at each regular meeting. The society will make a particular study of the life and works of Chas. Dickens, this term.

Preparations are being made for the anniversary of the society on February 22nd, which we hope will excel all former anniversaries. A good company will furnish the evening's entertainment.

Y. M. C. A.

The most noticeable advancement made in any department of our work since our last writing has been in Bible study. Two new bands have been organized since vacation. It is very gratifying to note that although the membership of the Association is not very large this year, practically all the fellows are enrolled in Bible study. Together with the Y. W. C. A. we held a leap year party in the gymnasium the eve of January 13th, which was well attended and enjoyed by all.

The outlook for the Y. M. C. A. Basket Ball team is very promising, and we are pretty confident of again taking the series from the strongest team which ever represented the Faculty.

Y. W. C. A.

Miss Mary C. Baker, Territorial Student Secretary, paid us a most pleasing visit just before the close of the fall term. Her coming was a real help to the Association, particularly to the cabinet members.

The series of meetings held during the week of prayer was most successful in attendance and in interest. The union services were addressed by Rev. Dickson, Rev. Byers, and Rev. Heckman of Bloomsburg, and Judge Hinckley of Danville. The girls' special services, also, were marked by a spirit of earnestness and sincerity.

On December 4th the girls conducted a bazaar and candy sale that netted the conference fund nearly twenty-five dollars. It was a very encouraging first attempt.

The mission study class, under the direction of Prof. Hartline, is finding much of interest in a comparative study of the great religions of the world.

Alumni.

The QUARTERLY desires to hear from all Alumni of the institution. Please consider this a personal invitation to let us know all about yourself and all you can tell us concerning your classmates. Address all communications for this department to G. E. Wilbur, Lock Box No 203.

---

We find the following in the Journal of Education, Dec. 7, 1911: "Mary L. Hastings of the Castine (Me.) Normal School specializes on training students to form the habit of using books. There is real art in leading even Normal School students to acquire this habit." We presume this refers to the Mary L. Hastings who was a member of the Faculty of this school during the years 1877-84. She is very graciously remembered by the students of that period.

Miss Clyde Bartholomew, who for several years has been principal of a School for Girls in the Philippines, is now in this country on a furlough. She will soon return to her work in the Islands. In the fall she addressed a meeting in the First Presbyterian Church of Bloomsburg and gave a most interesting talk on the educational development, religious growth and general prosperity since the United States has taken control of the country. Miss Bartholomew is a pleasing talker and her address was well received.

Readers of the QUARTERLY will remember that in the last issue reference was made to the fact that hereafter the men of the Faculty will be plain "Misters." Not so however—one of them has been elected Lieutenant Colonel of the Patriarchs Militant I. O. O. F. of Pennsylvania, and now it is Col. J. H. Dennis.

'70, Hill, Dr. Frank P. (sp. course) one of Berwick's well known citizens and physicians, died at his residence in that place January 1st. Dr. Hill had been ill of paralysis for a period of three years. The direct cause of his death was a stroke of apoplexy. He was always active in the political and educational interests of his town and county. He was for twelve years a member of the School Board.

'70, Eyerly, William L. (sp. course) died Nov. 27 at Harrisburg, Pa., of valvular disease of the heart. For a number of years he practiced law in Columbia County, but since the establishment of the Bloomsburg Morning Press he has been on the staff of that paper.

'73, Neal, Jas. B. (coll. prep.) a medical missionary located at Tsinanfu, China, under the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, sent the following cablegram to the Board about the middle of November: "Peaceful revolution. All safe." We know of no word received from him since the revolution ceased to be peaceful.

'73, Brown, Samuel C. (special course) died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Geo. W. Hess, in Bloomsburg, Thursday, Nov. 9. He had been ill since Christmas eve 1905, when he suffered a stroke of paralysis. He was greatly respected by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

'73, Clark, H. Bruce (sp. course) a familiar figure to all students who visited the Clark & Son store, died very suddenly in the early evening of Oct. 18. He was conversing with a friend on the porch of his home when stricken with cerebral hemorrhage. Death was instantaneous. He was the treasurer of the Board of Trustees since the death of his father, the late Henry J. Clark.

'75, Cole (Bittenbender) Ada M., is a lawyer in Lincoln, Neb. She is also an authoress of considerable note. Her latest work "Tedos and Tisod" has been received with very great acceptance. A review of the book, speaking of Mrs. Bittenbender says: "Professionally Mrs. Bittenbender is a lawyer. She was the first woman lawyer in Nebraska, of State and Federal courts, and third woman admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States. She represented women lawyers at the First International Council of Women, and served the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union several years at Washington as the Superintendent of Legislation and Attorney of the Union. She is a Pennsylvanian by birth. Her American ancestors, of Puritan English, were among the early New England colonists with patriotic descendants in the Revolution. Her father and brother were union soldiers during the civil war. She is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State Normal School at Bloomsburg, and of the Froebel Normal Institute at Washington, D. C. She was a school teacher before her marriage and a newspaper editor after, till she entered the legal profession and became her husband's law partner." Mr. Bittenbender is also a former Normal student, leaving here in 1870 to enter Princeton College, Class of '74.

'75, Hughes, Richard M. (sp. course), a student here during the years 1873-75, died at his home in West Pittston, Monday morning, Nov. 20. He was among the best known men in Luzerne Co. While a student here he had a host of friends not only among the school people but in the town as well.

'76, Clark, Edward B. (sp. course) died at the Medico-Chirurgical Hospital, Philadelphia, Nov. 13. Mr. Clark had been under treatment at the hospital for about seven weeks. His home for several years had been at Quakertown, Pa., where he was employed.

'79, Bakeless, O. H. At the annual meeting of the State Library Association last fall, Mr. Bakeless was elected vice president of the Association, an honor that is well merited.

'81, Sharpless, Harry B. is Treasurer of the "Assets Financing Company" of Seattle, Wash. He finds time in his busy life to fish and hunt. In an account of a recent hunting trip at the mouth of the Skagit river, he says—but no, we withhold. An account of the number and varieties of wild ducks and wild geese procured might cause the Nimrods of the Faculty much uneasiness until they had secured a "leave of absence" in order to exhibit their skill.

'81, McCay, M. D., Mary A.—and that now is the correct way to address her—is at the head of the Licensed Maternity Hospital, Sunbury, Pa., of which her son Robert B. McCay, M. D., is Business Manager. Her address is No. 228, Chestnut St.

'82, Hidlay, Wm. H. (sp. course) Cashier of the Bloomsburg National Bank, has been elected Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the Normal School to fill the vacancy created by the death of the late H. Bruce Clark.

'84, McDonough (Mrs. Frank W. Dodson) Margaret, is serving her ninth year as County Recorder of Polk County, Iowa. She says: "Women do not vote in Iowa, but they are eligible to the offices of County Superintendent and County Recorder. She further says: "Some time I am coming back to see you all." She will be most heartily welcomed.

'86, Hughes, S. Elizabeth, on Thursday evening, Nov. 9th, was married to Mr. Geo. B. Raser of Ashtabula, Ohio, at the home of her brother, Dr. W. P. Hughes in Pittsburg. Mr. and Mrs. Raser are now at home at the Summerlea Apartments, Pittsburg.

'86, Kline, Marion I. A card from "Mari-an" indicates that he easily survived that twenty-fifth reunion, safely reached his home and offices at Cheyenne, and has had a very successful year.

'90, Nagle, Chas. R. (sp. course) who has been successfully teaching in the public schools of Columbia County since leaving the Normal School, has been appointed Deputy Treasurer of the county, a position for which he is well qualified.

'90, Leshner, John V. (sp. course) has announced his candidacy for the democratic nomination for congress in the Sixteenth district. Jno. is a successful lawyer at Sunbury, Pa., and says he is "in the fight to the finish."

'93, Traub, Rev. Frank, mentioned of whom was made in a recent issue of the QUARTERLY, safely reached his mission field, Monrovia, Liberia, Africa. A very interesting letter from him was recently published in one of our local papers.

'93, John, Lillian, was married in 1909 to Mr. A. T. Floyd. She died in the fall of 1910. We have no further information respecting her illness and death.

'93, Wallize, Arthur B., is now at the head of the Department of English in the Cumberland Valley State Normal School, Shippensburg, Pa. This work there will be well and thoroughly done.

'94, Evans, W. W., Superintendent of Columbia county, has been elected President of the County Superintendents' Association of the State for the ensuing year. This is quite a flattering recognition of the county and her Superintendent's enterprise in school affairs.

'96, Knittle, Rev. John F. who has been pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer at Williamsport for several years, resigned the pastorate of that church to accept a call to the church at Manheim, Lancaster County. This church is known throughout the country as the "Church of the Red Rose."

'97, Cule, Thomas E. principal of School No. 31, Scranton, Pa., was married Wednesday evening, Oct. 18 to Miss Mary E. Jones of that city. The marriage was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. David Jones, pastor of the First Welsh Congregational Church, officiating. After a wedding trip to Washington, D. C., they took up their residence on Meridian street.

'97, Dennis, Lindley H. has been appointed expert assistant in the State Department of Public Instruction. He will have charge of Agricultural Education. Our school was signally honored in that another one of the three expert assistants is also a former pupil of the Normal. Miss Rose M. Fetterolf (sp. course) '97, was appointed expert assistant in Drawing. Miss Fetterolf recently attended a teacher's meeting in Bloomsburg, and by her presence and addresses greatly pleased all present.

'98, Corcoran (Oastler) M. Rachel, died at New Albany, Pa., Wednesday, September, 27, 1911. A friend in writing of her said: "When she was marked for an early grave, even Death, so accustomed to destroying the "shining mark," shrank from a task so revolting. The angel plead for time to accomplish the distasteful work, and so the 'great white plague' spread his wings over the sunny life, and slowly, inexorably, year after year, reeled in the golden cord until at vesper tide her sweet spirit passed from the loving care of her home circle to the arms of her Redeemer." Funeral services were held at the home of her parents in New Albany and at the St. Francis church in Overton. Rev. Father Morrison paid a very high and sincere tribute to her life and character. Interment was made in St. Francis cemetery.

'99, Olver, Grace is now Mrs. George Fox, and resides at Hagersville, Ontario, Canada.

'00, Kashner, Benj. F. is located at Polson, Mont., where he owns a farm of 160 acres which he was successful in drawing when the Government threw open several thousand acres a few years ago. He is not doing the farming himself but has two men working for him. This season's crop of wheat amounted to over 900 bushels. At the present time Mr. Kashner is employed as a bookkeeper for a large concern in Polson and is doing well.

'00, Swainbank, Lillian B. is now Mrs. Geo. H. Powell, and resides at Peckville, Pa.

'00, Edwards, T. Harry, who has been teaching in the Philippine Islands during the last ten years, returned to this country last summer on a furlough and has been visiting relatives and friends in Benton, his former home, and elsewhere in this section of the state. In November he gave a very interesting and instructive address before the Columbia County Educational Association. He will return soon to his work in the Islands.

'00, Newberry, A. Mae, as she again writes it, has been elected Superintendent of Schools of Knox County, Nebraska, having a safe majority. Her home address is Winnetoon, Neb.

'01, Millette, Arline. A Scranton paper Nov. 9, says: "James DeLancey Burdy and Miss Arline Millette, both of this city, were married yesterday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Fisk street, Green Ridge. Rev. A. K. Fuller, D. D., pastor of the Green Ridge Baptist church, officiated.

They were unattended. After the ceremony they left on a honeymoon tour of New York and on their return will reside on Fisk street.

'01, Weigley, Lizzie R. A friend has sent the following: Jacob Kohr, of Lebanon, and Miss Lizzie R. Weigley, were married Aug. 5, '11, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Emma Weigley, by Rev. H. J. Welker. Following a wedding trip to Philadelphia and Atlantic City, the couple will make their home with the bride's mother at Stouchsburg, Pa.

'02, Turner, Anna, resides at Peckville, Pa., and is now Mrs. William X. Jones.

'02, Leighow, Estella, was married Wednesday, Dec. 27, at the home of her parents near Northumberland, Pa., to Prof. Joseph F. Lewis of Pennsylvania State College, the bride's pastor, Rev. Geo. T. Street, performing the ceremony. A feature of the bride's attire was a wedding veil which was worn by her grandmother.

'03, Glover, Robert (sp. course) has resigned his position as a clerk in the Mifflinburg bank and accepted one with the Lehigh Valley Coal and Navigation Company, with headquarters at Lansford, Pa.

'03, Hagenbuch, Rae, is enjoying ranch life in Nevada. In a recent letter he states that he is teaching school from 8 to 12 o'clock each morning at a nearby ranch and the remainder of the day is given over by his partner and himself to the cultivation of their two ranches, each of 160 acres in addition to looking after a "bush" ranch of 800 acres they possess.

'04, Knorr, Kimber, was married in October to Miss Catharine Helwig, but news of the same reached us too late for the last issue of the QUARTERLY. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents in Numidia, and was solemnized by the Rev. J. M. Bachman, pastor of the Reformed Church. They make their home at Staunton, Virginia, where Mr. Knorr is conducting a mercantile business.

'04, Davis, Maud, was married Dec. 29, 1909, to Dr. M. I. Pentecost, and now resides at Peckville, Pa., where the doctor enjoys a large practice. William Irving Pentecost was born July 13, 1910, and is said to be "the dearest little fellow." We believe it. Mrs. Pentecost is secretary of the class of 1904.

'05, Church, Ned. F. (sp. course) was appointed, in November, Prothonotary and Clerk of the Courts of Union County to fill a vacancy created by the death of the incumbent, T. E. Halfpenny. Mrs. Church was formerly Miss Grace Housel, '03. We presume they will reside at Lewisburg, Pa.

'05, Francis, Martha, has become Mrs. B. H. Prestwood and resides at Taylor, Pa.

'05, Elwell, G. Edward, and Sara Milleisen, both of '05, were quietly married at the home of the bride in Bloomsburg at 6 o'clock on Tuesday morning, December 12th. The Rev. Dr. Flavel Sweeten Luther, President of Trinity College, assisted by Rev. S. C. Dickson, pastor of the Presbyterian church, and Rev. J. W. Diggles, rector of the Episcopal church of Bloomsburg, officiated. There seems to be no doubt as to their having been fully married. They took an extended wedding trip "down east". They will reside in Bloomsburg where Mr. Elwell is associated with his father, Geo. E. Elwell, conducting the Columbian Printing House, an extensive printing establishment.

'06, Frey, Winnie A., was married to Charles S. Gary of Elmira, N. Y., Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 28. The marriage was contracted at the home of the bride's father in Catawissa, Rev. J. H. Sandt, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church officiating. Mr. Gary is an attorney-at-law in Elmira, where they will reside.

'06, Welliver, William E. (sp. course) for eighteen months has been one of the resident physicians in the Lock Haven Hospital. His term there having expired he has decided to practice medicine in that city and has leased an office at No. 15 West Main Street where he is now located.

'06, Osuna, Jose, is on the "honor list" of the senior class at State College, having received the John W. White Scholarship. L. H. Dennis, '99, secured the Louise Carnegie Scholarship. As a rule our Normal boys take high standing in the several colleges attended, and we are reasonably proud of them. We have others in the colleges from whom you will soon hear.

'06, Longenberger, Myrtle—Messersmith, Chauncey P., were married at Mainville, Pa., January 3, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Longenberger, Rev. J. W. Woerhle, pastor of the M. E. church, officiating. The marriage took place at 8 o'clock in the morning. After a wedding breakfast at Hotel Yetter they took the train for Aetna, Indiana, where Mr. Messersmith holds a responsible position as chemist in the Aetna Powder Works.

'06, Barr, Anna, is not satisfied with her present attainments and has been pursuing special lines of work looking forward to a degree.

'06, Mellet, Catherine. On Dec. 2, in the Lady of Rosary church, Philadelphia, Catherine Mellet of Shenandoah became the bride of Ambrose Toole of Philadelphia. Mrs. Toole was a teacher in the public schools of Shenandoah. The couple have the best wishes of a large circle of friends and are "At Home" to all friends at 2617 Seltzer street, Philadelphia.

'07, McHenry, Earl K. (sp. course) is a student at Peekskill Military Academy, N. Y., and has been honored by his fellow students this term. This is his senior year and he has been made captain of Co. A, captain of the foot ball team, manager of the track team, president of the Y. M. C. A. fraternity; president of the senior class and the president of the advisory board. Earl's many friends here are pleased to learn of his success.

'09, Ruhl, Jessie. The engagement of Miss Jessie Ruhl and Wm. McKelvy Reber of Bloomsburg was announced about the middle of November. Mr. Reber who is engaged in the hardware business is one of Bloomsburg's most progressive citizens.

'09, Keller, Verna was married recently to Mr. Elmer Shipman of Stonington, Pa. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. W. T. Chilcote at the parsonage of the Irish Valley Methodist church. Mrs. Shipman has been teaching at Seven Points, Pa. Mr. Shipman is an operator at Snyderstown, Pa.

'11, McDaniels, Ethelend, and J. Bartley Shelhammer of Berwick were married at the Presbyterian Manse, Bloomsburg, Pa., October 31st, by the Rev. S. C. Dickson. The groom is a well-to-do farmer and recently purchased a valuable property near Berwick. They are now at home to their friends.

'11, Fitch, Pearl was taken to the Joseph Ratti Hospital at Bloomsburg on Oct. 21 and was operated upon for appendicitis. The operation was a success and she was enabled to leave the hospital Nov. 4. Her many friends most earnestly wish for her a speedy and complete restoration to health.

'11, Naugle, A. K. is teaching in Dunellen, N. J. and is greatly pleased with his school and with the Jersey people. He gives great credit to the training he received in the professional department of the Normal School.

'11, Parke, Minnie, is teaching in the country in Lackawanna county. Her school is three miles from her home, Jermyn, and she walks back and forth. Miss Morris, Miss Koehler and Miss Donahoe are teaching in the country. Bloomsburg Normal is well represented up there.

'11, And finally. Just before going to press, card received. Upper left hand corner picture of basket cradle and stork. Announcement:

Alumni Reunions

DAUPHIN COUNTY.

The annual banquet of the Dauphin county Alumni Association was held at the Metropolitan Hotel, Harrisburg, Pa., and was an exceedingly interesting and enjoyable occasion. The faculty was represented by Dr. Waller, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Bakeless, Mr. and Mrs. Sutliff, and Mr. Cope.

A short business session followed the banquet at which Dr. Grace Wintersteen was elected president. Miss M. Katharine McNiff, Vice President; Miss Margaret Sullivan, Treasurer; Mrs. Fleda Barnes Gottschall, Secretary; Miss Lorena Evans, Dr. W. B. Mausteller, and Miss Clara Swank together with the officers forming the executive committee.

A delightful social time and dancing to music by Updegrave's orchestra concluded the happy evening. Several letters of regret were read.

LUZERNE COUNTY.

Nearly three hundred members of the Luzerne county Association met in the Hotel Sterling, at Wilkes-Barre, Thursday evening Nov. 2. The entire second floor of the hotel was given over to the Alumni Association and even then more room was necessary and an overflow banquet had to be conducted in the regular dining room. A short reception preceded the banquet and the menu, one of the best that Landlord Capwell has served in some time. The event was presided over by Attorney G. J. Clarke, the president of the local Alumni Association. He proved an able toastmaster.

er and the committee in charge acted wisely in making the event a purely school function with no set speeches but only short, timely talks, and then the floor was cleared and for several hours dancing was enjoyed.

Dr. D. J. Waller, principal of the Bloomsburg State Normal School, opened the banquet by offering a blessing and then Toastmaster Clarke made a few remarks, when the following officers were reelected for the ensuing year: President, G. J. Clarke, of Luzerne Borough, '83, having filled the office every year except one; secretary, Miss Nancy Wintersteen of Plains, '98; treasurer, B. Frank Myers, Wilkes-Barre, '88.

Members of the Faculty present were Messrs Waller, Cope, Wilbur, Jenkins, Albert, Misses Smith, Sutphen, Good, Kresge and Jenkins, Messrs Jenkins and Wilbur were accompanied by their wives.

Oppenheim's orchestra furnished a delightful program of music during the entire affair.

LACKAWANNA COUNTY.

From the Tribune - Republican, Thursday, November 23.

The annual banquet and dance of the Bloomsburg State Normal school Alumni association of Scranton was held last night in the Scranton Bicycle club. The event was one of the most successful in the history of the association and was marked by the presence of Dr. D. J. Waller, principal of the school and a number of the members of the faculty. Addresses were made by C. R. Powell, president; Dr. Waller, J. C. Foote, George E. Wilbur and Superintendent of Schools George Howell. Following the banquet there was a dance for which Bauer's orchestra furnished the music. The officers of the association are: President, C. R. Powell; vice president, Walter H. Jones; secretary, Miss Mamie Morgan; treasurer, Richard Lewis; executive committee, T. E. Cule, Harold Jameison, Misses Margaret Lewis, Stella Evans and Bessie Evans.

MIFFLIN COUNTY.

From a Lewistown paper:

The second annual banquet and business meeting of the Bloomsburg State Normal School Alumni Association of Mifflin county took place at the Crystal Cafe between the hours of 6 and 8 last evening. Twenty members of the association enjoyed the elegant feast. After leaving the dining room a short annual business meeting was held in the cafe parlor. Following this all engaged in hearty conversation about the past, present and future of their dear old Alma Mater. Eight o'clock arrived entirely too soon for all. At this time they very reluctantly adjourned for another year, most of them going to the concert in the court house.

Messrs Cope and Bakeless and their wives and Mrs. Lindley Dennis represented the Normal.

WYOMING COUNTY.

The graduates of Bloomsburg Normal School living in Wyoming county held their first annual banquet at the hotel Graham, Friday evening, Dec. 15, 1911. A first-class banquet had been prepared and its excellence was proved by the hearty manner in which it was enjoyed.

Mr. Asa S. Keeler who spent some time there as a student in the early days of the school spoke for a few minutes about the school as he remembered it. Mr. C. H. Albert then took charge and after a few words of greeting to the assembled alumni and friends the election of officers was taken up. Mr. Chas. H. O'Neill was chosen president, Mrs. Adelaide McKown Hawke was chosen vice president and Denis D. Wright, secretary-treasurer.

NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY.

Sunbury Daily Item, Dec. 22.

More than a half hundred graduates and former students of the State Normal School at Bloomsburg, now located in this vicinity, held a meeting at the Masonic Temple last evening, to form a permanent Alumni Association and enjoy a feast.

An organization was effected by the election of the following officers: President, Myron Geddes, Northumberland; secretary, Miss Sarah Russell, Watontown; treasurer, Benj. Apple, Sunbury. Plans for the future were discussed but as the time was limited, the working out of the details was left for another time, so that all could enjoy the feast which was in waiting. The banquet was prepared and served under the personal direction of caterer C. W. Stahl, which is assurance of its excellence.

Dr. D. J. Waller, principal of the school, acted as toastmaster and responses were made by Mr. Wilbur, Mr. Foote, Mr. Cope, Mr. Sutliff of the school; County Supt. I. H. Mauser, Supt. Ellenberger, Sunbury; Supt. Dean, Mt. Carmel, and Dr. Hubble. Their responses were brief but scholarly and entertaining.

It was a merry gathering and many fond recollections of the Normal School days were recalled and discussed, the only regrettable feature of the evening being that the hour for departure came entirely too soon.

UNION COUNTY.

Thirty members of the Union County Association and their guests met around the banquet table in Mifflinburg on the evening of Dec. 21st. The occasion was greatly enjoyed by all present. A season of social intercourse and the recalling of scenes and events of school days made the hours slip away all too quickly.

Mr. Bakeless and Mr. Hartline did the honors for the Institution. Among the guests present were Judge-elect A. H. Johnson, Dr. S. L. Krebs of Swarthmore College and Supt. Evans of Columbia Co.

The New Term

As the QUARTERLY goes to press the work of the Spring Term, the homestretch of the school year, is well under way at Bloomsburg. The school duties of the term began March 26th with the usual heavy spring enrollment. Each week brings additional students, as the country schools are now closing and many of their teachers are making good use of the opportunity to secure the advantages of the Normal School training.

The dormitory accommodations of the school have been taxed to an unusual degree by the increased attendance, but under the capable management of our ever busy Registrar, Mr. F. H. Jenkins, all applicants have so far been satisfactorily cared for.

Office Changes

The ever increasing business of the school has for some time taxed the present office arrangements of the institution until it has been found necessary to completely remodel the public business office of the school. Changes have already been approved by the trustees which will be made during the present term so that it is expected that Commencement visitors will find office equipment and surroundings much more business like and convenient for the transaction of business with the general public.

The private offices were remodeled some time ago and the present changes will make the office equipment of the school thoroughly up-to-date.

The changes for which orders have already been given include a complete new equipment of office furniture, a new counter with metal grill work, the installation of three telephone booths, new electric wiring and fixtures and the redecoration of the office.

It is expected that these changes will be completed and in use by the first of June.

State Board Examinations

The State Department of Education has appointed Monday, June 17th as the date of the State Board Examinations at Bloomsburg this spring.

The Faculty preliminary examinations will begin Thursday, June 13th.

Athletics

The crack of the bat on the Normal Field again makes music for the lover of base ball. Prospects are good for a team of average merit. One never can tell amidst the shifting scenes of school life, just what a body of new men may contain in the way of future stars. One thing is certain. With Weimer and Schmaltz on the job there will be afforded a rare opportunity for the boys to learn up-to-date, inside base ball.

The following excellent schedule has been arranged by Manager John Shambach.

1912 SCHEDULE.

April 20, Berwick League Team away.

April 22, Berwick League Team here.

April 26, Gettysburg College here.

April 27th, Milton Athletic Club here.

May 3rd, Bellefonte Academy away.

May 4, Lock Haven S. N. S. away.

May 10, Conway Hall here.

May 11, Beliefonte Academy here.

May 17, Union Seminary here.

May 18, Wyoming Seminary here.
May 24, Phila. College Osteopathy here.

May 25, Lock Haven S. N. S. here.

June 6, Gettysburg College away.

June 7, Shippensburg S. N. S. away.

June 14, Kutztown S. N. S. away.

June 15, Kutztown S. N. S. here.

The basket ball season closed in March and was followed by a splendid banquet provided by the school. The team under the coaching of Weimer and the captaincy of Ray Mausteller played good ball and finished a very creditable season by defeating Wyoming Seminary, although we lost at Kingston.

At the banquet the following men were awarded the B.

Ray Mausteller, captain.

Frank Davis.

Robert Throne.

Smoczynski.

Wagonseller.

Fisk.

Brill.

The second team men receiving the a B a are :

Funk, Mears,
Mensch, Rishton,
Baez.

GYMNASIUM DEMONSTRATION.

The revival of the annual "Gym Exhibition" brought back many of the exciting scenes cherished by former students. Class spirit ran high but was most admirably controlled throughout the evening.

The following program was executed in faultless style and was a real demonstration of the daily work of the department.

Grand March.

Rings and Ropes, boys 1st and 2nd grades.

Singing Games, girls 1st and 2nd grades.

"Washing Day."

"I See You."

Cat and Mouse, girls 1st and 2nd grades.

Flag Drill, Senior girls.

Aesthetic Dance.

Mat Work, Zakutny and Pietrzykowski.

Indian Dance, boys 5th and 6th grades.

Indian Clubs, boys.

Philologist Society

The attendance at Philo. last term was exceptionally good, and new members were taken into the society at nearly every meeting.

As usual, the society has been following a regular line of work in their private programs. Last term the studies of Operas were taken up. They consisted of the life of the Author, synopsis of the play, and musical selections rendered by the Philo. chorus and individuals. A few of the Operas studied were Cavaleria Rusticana, Martha and Tannhauser.

Much important business was transacted during the winter term in which every member of the society took an active part.

The society has decided upon a new departure, that of buying books and placing them in the school library for the use of all students. In the purchase of these books care will be taken to select only such books as will aid the society in preparing their private programs.

Last Saturday evening new officers were elected to office and we the members of Philo. wish them a most successful administration thru-out the term.

Since last the readers of the QUARTERLY heard from her, Callie has been doing good work.

The annual Reunion took place as usual on the 22nd of February and also as usual was a success. The Gym was decorated with thousands of paper flowers in the society's colors, giving a very beautiful Japanese effect. The entire room was roofed with branches and to these the flowers were fastened, while from the gallery portieres made of the flowers were hung. The usual Callie badges were distributed by two children from the Model School, costumed as George and Martha Washington.

The program in Callie Hall was given at 11 o'clock and is generally conceded to have been the "best ever."

The hour was devoted chiefly to Dickens. The program was as follows: President's address, Edson Stark; The Three Fishers, Lera Farley; Dickens, The Man, Myra Campbell; The Lass with the Delicate Air, Esther Root; Reading from Dickens, Kimber Kuster; The Legend of the Chimes, Callie Chorus; Dickens Characters, Marguerite Seibel. During Miss Seibel's reading David Copperfield and Dora, the immortal Micawber, Mrs.

Micawber and the twins, Uriah Heep, Little Nell, Mr. Pickwick, Fannie Squeers, and several other old friends made their appearance in full costume.

Music for dancing was furnished thruout the afternoon by Low's Orchestra, and light refreshments were served in the middle of the afternoon by Callie girls in colonial costumes. In the evening Dr. Gabriel Maguire, the African explorer, lectured very acceptably.

Since the Reunion work has been carried on as usual and several excellent programs have been rendered.

Through the kindness of one of our charter members, Mr. C. B. Robbins of Bloomsburg, the society last fall came into possession of one of our early pins. The pin is a monogram in gold of the Greek letters Kappa and Epsilon, the initial letters of the words from which the society's name is derived.

The cut which heads this column is the work of one of Callie's most talented members, Mr. Frank Titman. It was used to head the programs for the Reunion.

Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. of B. S. N. S. has been very successful during the past year, under the leadership of Clarence Barrow, President. There was an exceptionally good attendance at Bible study. Four classes were organized studying the life of Paul, and were carried through

Wayne County Alumni Meeting and Banquet.

THE QUARTERLY regrets that the following was inadvertently omitted from the January number.

The Wayne County Alumni Association of the Bloomsburg State Normal School, held its annual meeting in the parlors of Mrs. Briggs, caterer, Honesdale, Pa., Wednesday evening, November 15. To those present it was the most enjoyable event of Institute Week. This organization met and elected its officers 2 years ago. No banquet was held that year. Last year a banquet was served at which there were thirty-three members present and four of the Normal School Faculty. This year we are happy to report that the Association has grown and was represented at the banquet by thirty-four members and six members of the School Faculty. The County Superintendent, J. J. Koehsuccessfully under the leadership of Messrs. Clarence Barrow, J. R. Jones, L. B. Savige and Ray Watkins.

The following were elected as officers, for the year: President, Chas. L. Hess; Vice President, Chas. Hendershot; Secretary, William Smith; Treasurer, Carl Atwood.

---

Y. W. C. A.

---

At the annual election before vacation, the following officers were chosen for the coming year: President, May Byington; Vice President, Nellie Seidel; Secretary, Anita Clark; Treasurer, Ruth Nicely.

The new cabinet members are taking hold of the work vigorously and we anticipate a successful year.

The recent basket ball game between the Y. W. C. A. team and the ladies of the Faculty, besides affording endless amusement for the spectators, netted the Conference fund twelve dollars. In the opinion of all—except the defeated team—it was money easily earned.

The Association has purchased a hundred "penny strips" to be filled by friends of the organization, as a ler and wife were also present. The fame of these enjoyable and profitable meetings is being spread throughout the county, and the attendance at the meeting in 1912 will, no doubt, be very largely increased. Miss Irene Curtis, '10, Waymart, is the new Secretary and Treasurer, succeeding Miss Alma Noble, '07, who declined re-election.

Class Reunions, Next Commencement.

There is evidence that the reunions this year will exceed in number and spirit those of any previous year. We know that this is a great undertaking, but the committees of several of the classes have been busy for some time, and think and say: It can be done.

We understand that preparations are being made by nearly all the classes that properly hold reunions, this year. They are: '72, '77, '82, '87, '92, '97, '02, '07.

The class of 1910 is planning to make its reunion this year the "largest second year reunion ever." Every member is urged to come. Only the absolutely indifferent will miss this occasion, unless conditions impossible to avoid or change prevent. No trivial excuses will be accepted by those loyal to the class, and to the school, who are present. Do not fail to be on hand early.

All reunions will be held Tuesday afternoon, June 25th. Please communicate with the Registrar, Mr. F. H. Jenkins, that arrangements may be perfected.

'76, Kline, I. Clinton, (special course) is a candidate for the Republican nomination for congress in this the Sixteenth Congressional District, and at this writing, April 15th, it appears that he has secured the coveted prize. Mr. Kline is a prominent member of the Northumberland County Bar. His opponent on the Democratic ticket will be John V. Leshner, '90, (Sp. Course) who had no opposition for the nomination. The district is normally democratic, but on two occasions has been represented by a republican. There will be a battle royal between these two old Normal boys, but it will be a clean contest, and he who gets the greater number of votes will be a worthy winner.

'77, Robbins, (Grimes) Honora, M. D., is spending several weeks in Florida this winter. She is accompanied by her young son.

'79, Lepley, Rev. Wm. A. At the recent Central Pennsylvania Conference of the M. E. Church, Mr. Lepley was stationed at Newton Hamilton. Other appointments of former Normal boys are as follows: E. H. Witman, '78 (Sp.) Curwensville; N. H. Smith, '80, Burnham; Marion J. Runyan, '82, (Sp.) Half Moon; N. E. Cleaver, '83, Mount Carmel; W. Wade Hartman, '88, (Sp.) Tyrone, and Harry E. Crow, '93, Conyngham.

'79, Lowenberg, Louis (Sp. C.) who has been in the clothing business in Milton, Pa., for several years, has become the manager of The Milton, the leading hotel of that borough.

'80, Butler, Harry C. (Sp. C.) died at his home in Carbondale, Pa. early in April. Mr. Butler was one of the leading lawyers of his home city and for a time was the City Solicitor. We do not have the particulars of his illness and death.

'83, Karschner, Rev. Lloyd W., was stationed by the Wyoming Conference, M. E. Church, at the session recently held in Scranton, at Wyalusing, Clark Callender, '90, at Nanticoke, and B. M. Johns at Factoryville.

'84, Dengler, Anna, has been appointed Supervisor of Music in the public schools of Newark, N. J. This appointment is all the more appreciated in that it was secured through a competitive examination in which there were a large number of applicants.

'85, McNiff, M. Katharine, (Sci. Course '89.) We find the following in a January issue of the Harrisburg Telegraph:

"After school on Thursday afternoon, Miss McNiff, instructor of Latin at Central High School, gave an illustrated talk on "Rome and the Roman Forum" for the benefit of the pupils of Latin of the High School.

Miss McNiff with crayon sketch gave her audience a clear guide map of Rome, showing the interesting sections of ancient and modern Rome. The intricacies of Cæsar's bridge, the "testudo" of the Roman soldiers, the plan of a Roman military camp as well as everyday scenes of ancient and modern Roman life were well explained and illustrated by Miss McNiff in her usual clear way.

The excellent pictures were thrown on the screen by Professor Henshen, who assisted Miss McNiff in her effort to make less the difficulties of Latin and the study more attractive and interesting. Miss McNiff's audience was large and earnest and the pupils showed a keen appreciation of their teacher's broad knowledge of her subject."

'85, Knorr, (Smith) Mildred, (Sp. Coll. Prep.) Bloomsburg friends and relatives will be interested in learning that Ethelbert Talbot Smith, son of Dr. E. F. Smith and Mrs. Mildred Knorr Smith, both former Bloomsburg residents, and a Junior at Trinity College, has been awarded first prize in English composition. His parents are residents of New York City—Morning Press.

'88, Wendt, Mary S., has studied and holds credits in German, Psychology and English from the Universities of Pennsylvania and of Pittsburgh. In recognition of her work as a student and as a teacher, Susquehanna University has conferred upon her (causa honoris) the degree of Master of Arts.

'90, Schening, John B., Druggist, S. W. corner 29th and Huntingdon streets, Philadelphia, recently made a flying visit to Bloomsburg and the Normal School. John looks prosperous, and appears to enjoy life as of old.

'93, Penman, Minnie. We clip from a local paper: "Miss Minnie Penman, who for some years has been a very successful teacher in the public schools, has been elected a teacher in the State Normal School to take the place of Mrs. L. H. Dennis who retires at the end of this school year in June. This is a worthy promotion for Miss Penman."

'93, Fahringer (Dennison) Effie, writes to Mr. Jenkins: "I want to inform you of my change of address. We have come to merry old England to make our home, for awhile at least, and I do not want to miss the "Normal Quarterlies" and Annual Reports." Her address is Mrs. W. N. Dennison, Botwell Lodge, Hayes, Middlesex, England.

'94, Buckalew, Louis W. (Sp. C.) was married Wednesday, January 31st to Miss Sophia Nelson of York, Pa. The marriage was solemnized at the home of the bride by Rev. Arthur Russell Taylor, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, York.

They are now at home in Bloomsburg, occupying one of the very desirable new flats in the Farmers National Bank Building.

'97, Moran, John A., a rising and able young Mt. Carmel attorney-at-law, has been appointed Solicitor for county auditors of Northumberland county. He will serve for the year 1912. Mr. Moran read law in the office of Wm. Chrisman in this town and has many friends here who note his success with pleasure.—Daily Sentinel.

'97, Milnes (Roberts) Mary, presented her husband with a little daughter early in April. They reside at Atlanta, Georgia. Mr. Roberts is the general manager for the southern states of the W. H. Baker Chocolate Company.

'98, Robbins, Auber J. On motion of attorney C. L. Robbins, Judge Strauss, Monday, admitted attorney Auber J. Robbins, of Bloomsburg, to practice law in the several courts of Luzerne county. Attorney Robbins was admitted to the Supreme Court in 1903 and practiced law in Columbia county for some years. He is well qualified to take up the practice of law in the local courts.—Wilkes-Barre Record.

'98, Morgain, U. Grant, has disposed of his business in Bloomsburg, and taken up his residence in Columbus, Ohio. We understand that he is a general salesman for a large manufacturing company of the east, making fine confectionery, cakes, crackers, etc.

'98, Styer, George R. The Daily Sentinel, February 8th, says:

"George Styer, of Berwick has been elected to fill the position as teacher in the commercial department in the High School made vacant by the resignation of H. A. Sykes. Mr. Styer was assistant principal in the Berwick High School, and comes to Bloomsburg highly recommended. His place will be filled by Mrs. Kimber Hartman, formerly Miss Deighmiller, a graduate of the Normal."

'99, Dennis, Lindley H., who has been appointed expert assistant in agricultural education in Pennsylvania, under the new State Board of Education, left yesterday for Harrisburg to take up his work. He will leave upon his arrival at Harrisburg, for Washington, D. C., on matters pertaining to his work.—Morning Press, March 8th.

'00, McCollum, Harry, has been spending several weeks in Espy, prior to going out in vaudeville for the summer in a David Belasco vaudeville sketch, the itinerary of which will extend to the Pacific coast and will continue to Fall. Mr. McCollum has just completed a tour with Robert Edeson.

'00, Evans (Eves) Elizabeth. A local paper, March 16, has the following: Mrs. A. H. Eves and children have returned to their home at Ladysmith, Wis., after visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Evans on Third street, following the death of a child, whose body was brought here for burial. Mr. Eves had previously returned home.

'00, Crossley, Bertha M. On Wednesday evening, January 31st, Miss Crossley, while in the act of giving her room-mate, Miss Blian of Rhode Island, an alcohol bath in their room at Perth Amboy, N.

J. before an open fire, was terribly burned by a sudden explosion of the alcohol, the details of which will never be learned for both young ladies were frightfully burned. The clothing was burned off both and Miss Crossley never had a chance for recovery, her entire body being terribly burned. She lingered until 4:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon, when death relieved her frightful sufferings. Miss Blian was slightly less seriously burned and she has a chance, although a slight one, for recovery, her condition being extremely critical.

The body was brought to Danville, Saturday, Feb. 3rd. The funeral services were held at Long's Church, near Danville, Sunday, Feb. 4th. Following her graduation at the Normal, Miss Crossley taught in the Hendrickson and Strawberry Ridge schools in Montour county, and later, when the family moved to New York City, taught in the schools of that city and suburban towns. For the last four years she has been teaching at Perth Amboy.

'00, Allen, Rebecca (Sp. C.) now residing with her mother at Hagerstown, Md., is taking a course for a trained nurse in a maternity hospital in Baltimore.

'00, MacFarlane, Mary W. At the home of her mother on Gaylord Ave., Plymouth, November 1, 1911, Miss Mary MacFarlane was married to Hon. Howard Nelson

Wilcox of Bristol, Conn. The house was tastefully decorated with palms, cut flowers, and vari-colored ribbons. Rev. A. M. Brown, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church officiated. Mr. Wilcox is one of the leading druggists of Bristol, Conn., and a member of the House of Representatives of that state. He is also president of the Business Men's Association.

They reside at 228 High Street, Bristol, Conn.

'01, Dennis, Fred. On account of ill health, Fred, some time ago, went to the Pacific coast hoping that the change of climate would be of benefit, but the conditions were such that his friends were literally 'hoping against hope.' Now the cheering and gratifying news comes that he is steadily improving, gaining in strength and vitality, and able to engage in light out-door employment. There is now every hope of complete restoration to health. He has just been joined by his wife and two children in San Dimas, Cal., where they will make their home.

'01, Keller, Edith, was married January 30th, to Verus T. Ritter, formerly of Bloomsburg, but now residing at Huntington, W. Va. The marriage was quietly solemnized in St. Michael's Protestant Episcopal church, New York City, by the Rev. Mr. McCandless, and took place at high twelve. The bride and groom were unattended, and the ceremony was witnessed by only a few near relatives. They are at home at Hotel Frederick, Huntington, W. Va.

'04, Richart, Bessie, is now in the Joseph Ratti Hospital ill of typhoid fever. At this writing all indications point to her recovery. A local paper makes the following statement:

"An abrasion of the finger is thought to have been responsible for the attack of typhoid fever with which Miss Bessie Richart, a trained nurse, is now suffering. Miss Richart was caring for Miss Florence Houck, a Normal student suffering with the disease, at the home of Calvin Girton, when she contracted the disease. The only reason that can be advanced for her contracting it is, that she suffered a cut finger while on the case."

'04, Eister, A. Bertram is in Ohio, working on automatic signals. He is employed by the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg on the Western Division as Signal Foreman. His address is 311 South Sandusky Avenue, Upper Sandusky, Ohio.

'04, Turner, Ruth T., has a delightful position as Secretary in the Castilleja School, Palo Alto, California, a school for young ladies. She greatly enjoys her work, the people and the climate.

'05, Burgess, Lee W., was married Tuesday evening, April 2, in Denver, Colo. to Miss Pearl J. Woodward of that city. The Grand Junction, Colo. Daily Sentinel, says:

"Miss Woodward is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Woodward, the former being a prominent mining operator of Cripple Creek and Denver. The family is well known in social circles, the bride-to-be being particularly active in Denver society.

Mr. Burgess is senior member of the firm of Burgess & Kinard, attorneys, and is a son of W. L. Burgess, proprietor of the Grand Junction Seed company of this city.

He came to this city in August of 1910 and was joined later in the year by J. M. Kinard, and these two young barristers have built up a splendid legal clientele during their stay. They are known as lawyers whose future is assured and of whose ability there is no question."

'05, Brooke, Walter S. The Bloomsburg friends of Walter S. Brooke will be glad to learn he was recently promoted to the position of assistant manager of the art department of the Pennsylvania Railways Advertising Company, one of the largest concerns of the kind in the country, all of which is gratifying evidence of the fact the young man's ability is being recognized. —Morning Press, Jan. 31.

'05, Sloan, David K. (Sp. C. P.) and wife (Irene Ikeler, '04) of Pottstown, will make their home in the near future at Berwick, Pa.

'06, McBride, Charles, principal of the Hemlock Township High School, has accepted the position of general superintendent of the "Uncle John" farm, owned by Geo. B. Markle of Hazleton. Mr. McBride, who is a native of Buckhorn, is a graduate in agriculture at State College. He entered upon his duties April 1.

'06, Osuna, Jose, now a senior at State College and who expects to enter Princeton Seminary next year, going from there to the ministry in Porto Rico in three years, spoke at the service in the First Presbyterian church, Sunday morning, February 18th, the address being considered a fine, attractive condensed account of conditions in Porto Rico before and after 1898.

'06, Creasy, Raymond C., is now a full-fledged M. D., and has opened offices at 31 South Washington street, Wilkes-Barre, Pa. The doctor can be relied upon implicitly to faithfully meet the demands of his profession.

'07, Llewellyn, Llewellyn N. We heard the other day, perhaps sub rosa, that the engagement of Mr. Llewellyn and Miss A. Louise Slocum, '08, had been announced.

'09, Bierman, Ethel, has gone to Wilmington, Del., where she has accepted a position as teacher in household economics at the Delaware Industrial School for Girls.

'09, Ruhl, Jessie, and W. McKelvy Reber (Sp. C. '99) were married at the home of the bride's parents in Bloomsburg, February 22d. The ring ceremony of the Presbyterian church was read by Rev. Spencer C. Dickson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of town.

Added impressiveness was given the ceremony by reason of its simplicity, which was witnessed only by the immediate families of the bride and groom and a few intimate friends. The bride and groom were unattended.

After an extended wedding trip they returned to Bloomsburg and have gone to housekeeping at 139 West Fifth street.

'11, Leister, Marion (Sp. C.) Word has been received in Bloomsburg of the engagement of Miss Leister, now of Norfolk, Va., to Mr. Walter C. Sanders of that city. The wedding will probably take place in April.

Mr. Sanders is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Sanders, of Colonia, a fashionable suburb of Norfolk. He is a graduate of Eastman College, New York, and with his father, is associated in many business interests in Norfolk.

'12, Young, Hannah, (Music.) The sad news came to the Normal about the last of January of the death of Miss Hannah Young, of Hazleton, a music student at the school during the school year of 1910-1911 and who was a student at the school until the Christmas vacation. She had expected to return after Christmas to complete her music studies here, but illness prevented her return. Funeral services were held at Seigfried, January 29th.

It has been decided that the Alumni List will not be included in the school catalog this year, and in consequence copies of the catalog will not be sent to graduates except upon request. Those specially desiring copies of the catalog will therefore address the Registrar who will be glad to supply their needs.

In the absence of the Alumni List, a news number of the QUARTERLY will be mailed to all graduates in July, and a specially good Alumni number is promised for this time, if you will send us the news. Changes of address are particularly desired.

Rather rough on base ball so far. Coach Weimer expects to charter a fleet of sea-going steam tugs for the use of the ball team on Mt. Olympus if the present weather holds.

* **

The base ball team will appear this spring in new suits of brown gray flannel with maroon stockings, belt and cap visor. A six inch B in maroon on the left breast completes a uniform unusually neat and effective.
